Our business

We are a leading innovator in treatments for atrial fibrillation (Afib) and left atrial appendage (LAA) management. We have several product lines for the ablation of cardiac tissue, including our Isolator[®] Synergy[™] Ablation System, the first and only surgical device approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for the treatment of persistent and longstanding persistent forms of Afib in patients undergoing certain open heart procedures. We also offer a variety of minimally invasive ablation devices and access tools to facilitate the growing trend in less invasive cardiac and thoracic surgery. Our cryoICE[®] cryosurgery product line offers a variety of cryoablation devices for use in multiple types of cardiothoracic surgery. Our AtriClip[®] Left Atrial Appendage Exclusion System is specifically designed to occlude the heart's left atrial appendage.

Afib affects approximately 1% of the population in the United States. It is the most common cardiac arrhythmia, or irregular heartbeat, encountered in clinical practice and accounts for more doctor visits and hospital days than any other cardiac arrhythmia. When a patient is in Afib, abnormal electrical impulses cause the atria, or upper chambers of the heart, to fibrillate, or beat rapidly, irregularly, and in an uncoordinated fashion. As a result, blood in the atria may become static, increasing the risk that a blood clot will form and cause a stroke or other serious complications. Symptoms of Afib may include heart palpitations, dizziness, fatigue and shortness of breath, and these symptoms may be debilitating and life threatening in some cases. Patients often progress from being in Afib intermittently to being in Afib continuously. Afib often occurs in conjunction with other cardiovascular diseases, including hypertension, congestive heart failure, left ventricular dysfunction, coronary artery disease and valvular disease.

Physicians have adopted our radiofrequency (RF) ablation and cryoablation systems to treat Afib in over 275,000 patients since 2004, and we believe that we are currently the market leader in the surgical treatment of Afib. Our products are used by physicians during both open-heart and minimally invasive surgical procedures, either on a concomitant or standalone basis. During a concomitant procedure, the physician ablates cardiac tissue and/or occludes the LAA, secondary, or concomitant, to a primary structural heart procedure such as a valve repair or replacement or coronary artery bypass graft (CABG). Our Isolator Synergy System is approved by FDA for the treatment of persistent and long-standing persistent Afib concomitant to other open-heart surgical procedures. Our other ablation devices are all cleared for sale under FDA 510(k) clearances, including our other RF and cryoablation products, which are indicated for the ablation of cardiac tissue and/or the treatment of cardiac arrhythmias. In addition, our cryoICE probe is cleared for managing pain by temporarily ablating peripheral nerves. Our AtriClip products are 510(k)-cleared with an indication for the occlusion of the heart's LAA, in conjunction with other cardiac surgical procedures. We also have a line of reusable surgical instruments typically used in cardiac valve replacement or repair. Certain of our products also bear the CE mark and may be commercially distributed throughout the member states of the European Union and other countries that comply with or mirror the medical device directives. We anticipate that substantially all of our revenue for the foreseeable future will relate to products we currently sell, or are in the process of developing.

In the United States, we sell our products to medical centers through our direct sales force. In certain international markets, such as Germany, France, the United Kingdom and the Benelux region, we also sell our products directly to medical centers, while other international sales are made to distributors who in turn sell our products to end users. Our business is primarily transacted in U.S. Dollars with the exception of transactions in Europe, which are transacted in Euros or British Pounds.

Recent developments

Acquisition-related contingent consideration.

We acquired nContact Surgical, Inc. ("nContact") pursuant to a merger agreement dated October 4, 2015. The merger agreement provides for contingent consideration, or an "earnout", to be paid upon attaining specified regulatory approvals and clinical and revenue milestones. In August 2018 we announced that we had achieved one of the clinical milestones when we completed enrollment of 153 patients in the CONVERGE IDE clinical trial. As a result of the achievement of this clinical milestone, we made cash payments totaling approximately $1.2 million and issued and delivered 231,963 shares of common stock to the former shareholders of nContact on September 20, 2018. All of the shares issued and delivered have been registered for resale.

Preliminary estimates for three months ended September 30, 2018

Our condensed consolidated financial statements for the three months ended September 30, 2018 are not yet available. Accordingly, the information presented below reflects our preliminary estimates subject to the completion of our financial closing procedures and any adjustments that may result from the completion of the quarterly review of our condensed consolidated financial statements. As a result, these preliminary estimates may differ from the actual results that will be reflected in our condensed consolidated financial statements for the quarter when they are completed and publicly disclosed. These preliminary estimates may change and those changes may be material.

Our expectations with respect to our unaudited results for the period discussed below are based upon management estimates and are the responsibility of management. Our independent registered public accounting firm has not audited, reviewed or performed any procedures with respect to these preliminary results and, accordingly, does not express an opinion or any other form of assurance about them.

Preliminary and unaudited revenue for the third quarter of 2018 is expected to be approximately $49.9 million, reflecting growth of approximately 18.5% over the third quarter of 2017 (18.6% on a constant currency basis). Based on this preliminary estimate, U.S. revenue is expected to be approximately $39.8 million, reflecting growth of 19.1% over the third quarter of 2017. International revenue is expected to be approximately $10.2 million, an increase of 16.2% as compared to the third quarter of 2017 (16.9% on a constant currency basis). Loss from operations is expected to be in the range of $6.0 million to $7.5 million for the third quarter of 2018.

To supplement AtriCure's condensed consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, or GAAP, we use certain non-GAAP financial measures.

Revenue reported on a constant currency basis is a non-GAAP measure and calculated by applying previous period foreign currency exchange rates, which is determined by the average daily Euro to Dollar exchange rate, to each of the comparable periods. Management analyzes revenue on a constant currency basis to better measure the comparability of results between periods. Because changes in foreign currency exchange rates have a non-operating impact on revenue, management believes that evaluating growth in revenue on a constant currency basis provides an additional and meaningful assessment of revenue to both management and the company's investors.

The number of shares of common stock to be outstanding after this offering as reflected in the table above is based on the actual number of shares outstanding as of June 30, 2018, which was 35,312,869, and does not include, as of that date:

- 231,963 shares of common stock issued and delivered to the former shareholders of nContact on September 20, 2018 pursuant to the merger agreement as contingent consideration;
- 1,773,992 shares of common stock issuable upon the exercise of outstanding options, with a weighted average exercise price of $12.96 per share (including 105,644 shares of common stock that were issued upon the exercise of options from July 1, 2018 through October 2, 2018);
- 17,500 options granted under our 2014 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended, from July 1, 2018 through October 2, 2018;

Risk factors

Investing in our common stock involves a high degree of risk. Before you make a decision to invest in our common stock, you should consider carefully the risks described below, together with other information in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus and the information incorporated by reference herein and therein. If any of the following events actually occur, our business, operating results, prospects or financial condition could be materially and adversely affected. This could cause the trading price of our common stock to decline and you may lose all or part of your investment. The risks described below are not the only ones that we face. Additional risks not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also significantly impair our business operations and could result in a complete loss of your investment. See "Risk Factors" beginning on page 11 of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017 incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus for a discussion of other factors to consider before deciding to purchase shares of our common stock.

Risks related to this offering

Our management will have broad discretion as to the use of the proceeds from this offering, and we may not use the proceeds effectively.

We have not designated any portion of the net proceeds from this offering to be used for any particular purpose other than as we may describe in this prospectus supplement. Accordingly, our management will have broad discretion as to the application of the net proceeds from this offering, and could spend the proceeds in ways that do not necessarily improve our operating results or enhance the value of our common stock.

You will experience immediate dilution in the book value per share of the common stock you purchase.

Because the price per share of our common stock being offered is substantially higher than the book value per share of our common stock, you will suffer substantial dilution in the net tangible book value of the common stock you purchase in this offering. After giving effect to the sale by us of 2,500,000 shares of common stock in this offering, based on an assumed public offering price of $33.66 per share in this offering, the last reported sale price of our common stock on the NASDAQ Global Market on October 2, 2018, and after deducting the underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses payable by us, and based on a net tangible book value of our common stock of $4.4 million, or $0.12 per share, as of June 30, 2018, if you purchase shares of common stock in this offering, you will suffer immediate and substantial dilution of $31.46 per share in the net tangible book value of the common stock. If the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares from us, you will experience additional dilution. See "Dilution" on page S-14 for a more detailed discussion of the dilution you will incur in connection with this offering.

Future sales of a substantial number of shares of our common stock by our existing securityholders could cause our stock price to decline.

If our existing stockholders sell, or indicate an intention to sell, substantial amounts of our common stock in the public market, the trading price of our common stock could decline. A number of shares of common stock are subject to outstanding options and are or will become eligible for sale in the public market to the extent permitted by the provisions of various vesting schedules. In addition, on September 20, 2018, we issued and delivered 231,963 shares of common stock to the former shareholders of nContact pursuant to the merger agreement as contingent consideration. All of the shares issued and delivered have been registered for resale. The nContact transaction provides for contingent consideration to be paid upon attaining additional specified regulatory approvals and revenue milestones over the next three years. Subject to the terms and conditions of the nContact merger agreement, such contingent consideration will be paid in shares of AtriCure common stock and cash, with a requirement to make payments in shares of AtriCure common stock first, up to a specified maximum number of shares. If these additional shares of common stock are sold, or if it is perceived that they will be sold, in the public market, the trading price of our common stock could decline.

Our executive officers and directors have agreed that, subject to limited exceptions, during the period ending 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement, they may not, without the prior written consent of the representatives, (1) offer, pledge, announce the intention to sell, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any shares of our common stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for our common stock (including, without limitation, common stock or such other securities which may be deemed to be beneficially owned by such directors, executive officers, managers and members in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC and securities which may be issued upon exercise of a stock option or warrant) or (2) enter into any swap or other agreement that transfers, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of the common stock or such other securities, whether any such transaction described in clause (1) or (2) above is to be settled by delivery of common stock or such other securities, in cash or otherwise, or (3) make any demand for or exercise any right with respect to the registration of any shares of our common stock or any security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for our common stock. See "Underwriting".

Special note regarding forward-looking statements

This prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference herein and therein, and other information that we may furnish to the SEC contain forward-looking statements about us, our future performance and our industry that involve substantial risks and uncertainties. We intend such forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. All statements, other than statements of historical facts, included in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus and information that we furnish to or file with the SEC regarding our strategy, future operations, future financial position, future net sales, projected expenses, products' placements, performance and acceptance, prospects and plans and management's objectives, as well as the growth of the overall market for our products in general and certain products in particular and the relative performance of other market participants are forward-looking statements. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results, levels of activity, performance or achievement to be materially different from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements.

In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terms such as "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "hope," "expect," "seek," "intend," "may," "might," "plan," "project," "will," "would," "should," "could," "can," "predict," "potential," "continue," "objective," "target" or the negative of these terms, and similar expressions intended to identify forward-looking statements. However, not all forward-looking statements contain these identifying words. These forward-looking statements reflect our current views about activities, events or developments that we expect, believe or anticipate will or may occur in the future and are based on assumptions and subject to risks and uncertainties which may cause actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those expressed or implied. Forward-looking statements are based on our experience and perception of current conditions, trends, expected future developments and other factors we believe are appropriate under the circumstances and are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our control. Given these uncertainties, you should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. All forward-looking information is inherently uncertain and actual results may differ materially from assumptions, estimates or expectations reflected or contained in the forward-looking statements as a result of various factors, including but not limited to:

- the ability of our products to achieve widespread market acceptance within the medical community as a standard treatment alternative for the surgical treatment of Afib during open-heart surgical procedures and as a sole-therapy minimally invasive procedure;
- our receipt of additional FDA approvals to promote our products for the treatment of Afib or reduction in stroke risk, which is conditioned on the safety and efficacy of our products as demonstrated in clinical trials;
- our reliance that our ablation, ablation related, and LAA management products will continue to be the primary source of revenue and will not become obsolete;
- competition from new and existing products and procedures in the highly competitive medical device industry;
- failure of government or third-party payors to reimburse our customers for the use of our clinical diagnostic products or reduction of reimbursement levels, which could harm our ability to promote and sell our products;
- failure of our products to perform as expected or to obtain certain approvals or the questioning of the reliability of the technology on which our products are based or the questioning of the promotion by regulatory authorities of our products as “off-label”, which could cause lost revenue, delayed or reduced market acceptance of our products, increased costs and damage to our reputation;

- our ability to consummate acquisitions or, if consummated, to successfully integrate acquired businesses into our operations and to recognize the benefits of acquisitions, including potential synergies and cost savings;
- failure of an acquisition or acquired company to achieve its plans and objectives generally, and risk that proposed or consummated acquisitions may disrupt operations or pose difficulties in employee retention or otherwise affect financial or operating results;
- our ability to retain our current employees and/or require additional qualified personnel, upon whom the success of our business is highly dependent;
- domestic and foreign political developments, which may adversely affect our effective tax rate and global economic conditions, including trade wars and tariffs, which could interrupt or harm our operations and earnings;
- risks related to legal proceedings, including litigation, regulatory investigations, and other proceedings related to our compliance with applicable laws and regulations;
- our issuance of additional shares of common stock to former stockholders of nContact as a result of the satisfaction of certain milestones set forth in the merger agreement with nContact and the other parties thereto, which could result in ownership dilution and depression of our stock price;
- our actual results for the third quarter of fiscal 2018 may differ from the preliminary results set forth under “Prospectus Supplement Summary—Recent Developments”; and
- those set forth under “Risk Factors” in our Annual Report on Form 10–K for the year ended December 31, 2017.

These forward–looking statements represent our estimates and assumptions only as of the date of this prospectus supplement. Unless required by U.S. federal securities laws, we do not intend to publicly update or revise any of these forward–looking statements to reflect new information or future events or otherwise. This prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus should be read in conjunction with our consolidated financial statements and notes thereto appearing in our Annual Report on Form 10–K. You should carefully consider all the information in or incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus prior to investing in our securities.

Use of proceeds

We estimate that the net proceeds to us from this offering will be approximately $78.80 million, or approximately $90.67 million if the underwriters exercise their option to purchase additional shares of common stock from us in full, based upon an assumed public offering price of $33.66, the last reported sale price of our common stock on The NASDAQ Global Market on October 2, 2018, and after deducting the underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses payable by us.

We intend to use the net proceeds from this offering for working capital and other general corporate purposes, which may include repayment of debt, the possible pursuit of strategic acquisitions, and other potential corporate or market development activities.

The amounts and timing of our use of proceeds will depend on a number of factors, such as the timing and availability of corporate and market development opportunities. As of the date of this prospectus supplement, we cannot specify with certainty the particular uses for the net proceeds to us from this offering. Accordingly, our management will have broad discretion in the application of these proceeds. Pending application of the net proceeds as described above, we intend to invest the proceeds in short and intermediate-term, interest-bearing obligations, investment grade debt instruments, or direct or guaranteed obligations of the U.S. government.

Dividend policy

We have never paid any cash dividends on our capital stock and do not anticipate paying any cash dividends on our common stock in the foreseeable future. We intend to retain future earnings to fund ongoing operations and future capital requirements. Any future determination to pay cash dividends will be at the discretion of our board of directors and will be dependent upon financial condition, results of operations, capital requirements and such other factors as the board of directors deems relevant.

Capitalization

The following table sets forth our cash and cash equivalents and investments and capitalization as of June 30, 2018 on:

- an actual basis; and
- on an as adjusted basis to give effect to the assumed issuance and sale by us of 2,500,000 shares in this offering, and the receipt of the net proceeds from our sale of these shares, at the assumed public offering price of $33.66 per share, the last reported sale price per share of our common stock on The NASDAQ Global Market on October 2, 2018, and after deducting the underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses payable by us (assuming no exercise of the underwriters' option to purchase additional shares).

The table below should be read in conjunction with the sections titled "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and our condensed consolidated financial statements and the accompanying notes included in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2018 and in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017, each of which is incorporated by reference herein.

(1) Our loan and security agreement includes a $40,000 term loan and a $20,000 revolving line of credit, with an option to increase the revolving line of credit by up to an additional $20,000. The term loan and revolving line of credit each have a five-year term, maturing or expiring, as applicable, in February 2023. Borrowing availability under the revolving credit facility is based on the lesser of $20,000 or a borrowing base calculation, as defined. As of June 30, 2018, we had no borrowings under the revolving credit facility and had borrowing availability of $18,750. Deferred financing costs related to the term loan total $601 and are netted against the outstanding term loan balance.

The information above is based on 35,312,869 shares of our common stock outstanding as of June 30, 2018 and does not include:

- 231,963 shares of common stock issued and delivered to the former shareholders of nContact on September 20, 2018 pursuant to the merger agreement as contingent consideration;
- 1,773,992 shares of common stock issuable upon the exercise of outstanding options, with a weighted average exercise price of $12.96 per share (including 105,644 shares of common stock that were issued upon the exercise of options from July 1, 2018 through October 2, 2018);

Table of Contents

- 17,500 options granted under our 2014 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended, from July 1, 2018 through October 2, 2018;
- 1,362,708 shares of common stock reserved for future issuance under our 2014 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended; and
- 635,828 shares of common stock reserved for future issuance under our Employee Stock Purchase Plan.

Dilution

Our net tangible book value on June 30, 2018 was approximately $4.4 million, or $0.12 per share of common stock. "Net tangible book value" is total assets minus the sum of liabilities and intangible assets including goodwill. "Net tangible book value per share" is net tangible book value divided by the total number of shares of common stock outstanding. After giving effect to the sale of shares of common stock offered by us in this offering at the assumed public offering price of $33.66 per share, the last reported sale price of our common stock on the NASDAQ Global Market on October 2, 2018 and after deducting the underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses payable by us, our pro forma as adjusted net tangible book value on June 30, 2018 would have been approximately $83.2 million, or $2.20 per share of common stock. The following table illustrates this dilution on a per share basis:

Assumed public offering price per share	$33.66
Net tangible book value per share as of June 30, 2018	$0.12
Increase in net tangible book value per share attributable to offering	$2.08
As adjusted net tangible book value per share as of June 30, 2018 after giving effect to the offering	$ 2.20
Dilution per share to investors in the offering	$31.46

The information above assumes that the underwriters do not exercise their option to purchase additional shares. If the underwriters exercise their option to purchase 375,000 additional shares in full based on the assumed public offering price of $33.66 per share, the last reported sale price of our common stock on the NASDAQ Global Market on October 2, 2018, the as adjusted net tangible book value after this offering would be approximately $2.49 per share, representing an increase in net tangible book value of approximately $2.37 per share to existing stockholders and immediate dilution in net tangible book value of approximately $31.17 per share to new investors purchasing our common stock in this offering at the public offering price.

The above discussion and table are based on 35,312,869 common shares outstanding at June 30, 2018, and do not include, as of that date:

- 231,963 shares of common stock issued and delivered to the former shareholders of nContact on September 20, 2018 pursuant to the merger agreement as contingent consideration;
- 1,773,992 shares of common stock issuable upon the exercise of outstanding options, with a weighted average exercise price of $12.96 per share (including 105,644 shares of common stock that were issued upon the exercise of options from July 1, 2018 through October 2, 2018);
- 17,500 options granted under our 2014 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended, from July 1, 2018 through October 2, 2018;
- 1,362,708 shares of common stock reserved for future issuance under our 2014 Stock Incentive Plan, as amended; and
- 635,828 shares of common stock reserved for future issuance under our Employee Stock Purchase Plan.

Material U.S. federal income and estate tax consequences for Non-U.S. Holders of common stock

The following are the material U.S. federal income and estate tax consequences of the ownership and disposition of our common stock acquired in this offering by a “Non-U.S. Holder” that holds our common stock as a “capital asset” within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Code, and does not own, and has not owned, actually or constructively, more than 5% of our common stock. You are a Non-U.S. Holder if for U.S. federal income tax purposes you are a beneficial owner of our common stock that is:

- a nonresident alien individual;
- a foreign corporation; or
- a foreign estate or trust.

You are not a Non-U.S. Holder if you are a nonresident alien individual present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of disposition, or if you are a former citizen or former resident of the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If you are such a person, you should consult your tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the ownership and disposition of our common stock.

If you are a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partner and your activities. Accordingly, partnerships holding our common stock and the partners in such partnerships should consult their tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences to them of the ownership and disposition of our common stock.

This discussion is based on the Code, administrative pronouncements, judicial decisions and final, temporary and proposed Treasury regulations, changes to any of which subsequent to the date of this prospectus supplement may affect the tax consequences described herein, possibly with retroactive effect. This discussion does not describe all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to you in light of your particular circumstances, including alternative minimum tax and Medicare contribution tax consequences and does not address any aspect of state, local or non-U.S. taxation, or any taxes other than income and estate taxes. You should consult your tax advisor with regard to the application of the U.S. federal tax laws to your particular situation, as well as any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or non-U.S. taxing jurisdiction.

Dividends

As discussed under “Dividend policy” above, we do not currently expect to make distributions on our common stock. In the event that we do make distributions of cash or other property, those distributions will constitute dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent paid from our current or accumulated earnings and profits, as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. To the extent those distributions exceed our current and accumulated earnings and profits, they will constitute a return of capital, which will first reduce your basis in our common stock, but not below zero, and then will be treated as gain from the sale of our common stock, as described below under “— Gain on disposition of our common stock.”

Dividends paid to you generally will be subject to withholding tax at a 30% rate or a reduced rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty. In order to obtain a reduced rate of withholding (subject to the discussion below under “—FATCA”), you will be required to provide a properly executed applicable Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) Form W-8 certifying your entitlement to benefits under a treaty.

If dividends paid to you are effectively connected with your conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, are attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base maintained by you in the United States), you will generally be taxed on the dividends in the same manner as a U.S. person. In this case, you will be exempt from the withholding tax discussed in the preceding paragraph, although you will be required to provide a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI in order to claim an exemption from withholding. You should consult your tax advisor with respect to other U.S. tax consequences of the ownership and disposition of our common stock, including the possible imposition of a branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or a lower treaty rate) if you are a corporation.

Gain on disposition of our common stock

Subject to the discussions below under “—Information reporting and backup withholding” and “—FATCA,” you generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax on gain realized on a sale or other taxable disposition of our common stock unless:

- the gain is effectively connected with your conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base maintained by you in the United States), or
- we are or have been a “United States real property holding corporation,” as defined in the Code, at any time within the five-year period preceding the disposition or your holding period, whichever period is shorter, and our common stock has ceased to be regularly traded on an established securities market prior to the beginning of the calendar year in which the sale or disposition occurs.

We believe that we are not, and do not anticipate becoming, a United States real property holding corporation.

If you recognize gain on a sale or other disposition of our common stock that is effectively connected with your conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base maintained by you in the United States), you will generally be taxed on such gain in the same manner as a U.S. person. You should consult your tax advisor with respect to other U.S. tax consequences of the ownership and disposition of our common stock, including the possible imposition of a branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or a lower treaty rate) if you are a corporation.

Information reporting and backup withholding

Information returns are required to be filed with the IRS in connection with payments of dividends on our common stock. Unless you comply with certification procedures to establish that you are not a U.S. person, information returns may also be filed with the IRS in connection with the proceeds from a sale or other disposition of our common stock. You may be subject to backup withholding on payments on our common stock or on the proceeds from a sale or other disposition of our common stock unless you comply with certification procedures to establish that you are not a U.S. person or otherwise establish an exemption. Your provision of a properly executed applicable IRS Form W-8 certifying your non-U.S. status will permit you to avoid backup withholding. Amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules are not additional taxes and may be refunded or credited against your U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

FATCA

Provisions of the Code and related U.S. Treasury guidance commonly referred to as “FATCA” require withholding of 30% on payments of dividends on our common stock, as well as of gross proceeds of dispositions occurring after December 31, 2018 of our common stock, to “foreign financial institutions” (which is broadly defined for this purpose and in general includes investment vehicles) and certain other non-U.S. entities unless various U.S. information reporting and due diligence requirements (generally relating to ownership by U.S. persons of interests in or accounts with those entities) have been satisfied, or an exemption applies. An intergovernmental agreement between the United States and an applicable foreign country may modify these requirements. If FATCA withholding is imposed, a beneficial owner that is not a foreign financial institution generally may obtain a refund of any amounts withheld by filing a U.S. federal income tax return (which may entail significant administrative burden). You should consult your tax advisor regarding the effects of FATCA on your investment in our common stock.

Federal estate tax

Individuals who are not citizens or residents of the United States (as defined for U.S. federal estate tax purposes) and entities the property of which is potentially includible in such an individual's gross estate for U.S. federal estate tax purposes (for example, a trust funded by such an individual and with respect to which the individual has retained certain interests or powers), should note that, absent an applicable treaty exemption, our common stock will be treated as U.S.-situs property subject to U.S. federal estate tax.

Underwriting

We are offering the shares of common stock described in this prospectus supplement through a number of underwriters. J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and Piper Jaffray & Co. are acting as joint book running managers of the offering and as representatives of the underwriters. We have entered into an underwriting agreement with the underwriters. Subject to the terms and conditions of the underwriting agreement, we have agreed to sell to the underwriters, and each underwriter has severally agreed to purchase, at the public offering price less the underwriting discounts and commissions set forth on the cover page of this prospectus supplement, the number of shares of common stock listed next to its name in the following table:

Name	Number of shares
J.P. Morgan Securities LLC
Piper Jaffray & Co.
Canaccord Genuity LLC
Leerink Partners LLC
Stifel, Nicolaus & Company, Incorporated
Total

The underwriters are committed to purchase all the shares of common stock offered by us if they purchase any shares. The underwriting agreement also provides that if an underwriter defaults, the purchase commitments of non-defaulting underwriters may also be increased or the offering may be terminated.

The underwriters propose to offer the shares of common stock directly to the public at the public offering price set forth on the cover page of this prospectus supplement and to certain dealers at that price less a concession not in excess of $ _____ per share. Any such dealers may resell shares to certain other brokers or dealers at a discount of up to $ _____ per share from the public offering price. After the initial offering of the shares to the public, if all of the shares are not sold at the public offering price, the underwriters may change the offering price and the other selling terms.

The underwriters have an option to buy up to 375,000 additional shares of common stock from us to cover sales of shares by the underwriters which exceed the number of shares specified in the table above. The underwriters have 30 days from the date of this prospectus supplement to exercise this option to purchase additional shares. If any shares are purchased with this option to purchase additional shares, the underwriters will purchase shares in approximately the same proportion as shown in the table above. If any additional shares of common stock are purchased, the underwriters will offer the additional shares on the same terms as those on which the shares are being offered.

The underwriting fee is equal to the public offering price per share of common stock less the amount paid by the underwriters to us per share of common stock. The underwriting fee is $ _____ per share. The following table shows the per share and total underwriting discounts and commissions to be paid to the underwriters assuming both no exercise and full exercise of the underwriters' option to purchase additional shares.

Table of Contents

We estimate that the total expenses of this offering, including registration, filing and listing fees, printing fees and legal and accounting expenses, but excluding the underwriting discounts and commissions, will be approximately $300,000.

A prospectus in electronic format may be made available on the web sites maintained by one or more underwriters, or selling group members, if any, participating in the offering. The underwriters may agree to allocate a number of shares to underwriters and selling group members for sale to their online brokerage account holders. Internet distributions will be allocated by the representatives to underwriters and selling group members that may make Internet distributions on the same basis as other allocations.

We have agreed with the underwriters that we will not (i) offer, pledge, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, or submit to, or file with, the SEC a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 relating to, any shares of our common stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for shares of our common stock, or publicly disclose the intention to make any offer, sale, pledge, disposition, submission or filing, or (ii) enter into any swap or other agreement that transfers, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of our common stock or any such other securities, whether any such transaction described in clause (i) or (ii) is to be settled by delivery of shares of our common stock or such other securities, in cash or otherwise, without the prior written consent of the representatives for a period of 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement. The restrictions contained in the preceding sentence shall not apply to (A) the shares to be sold hereunder, (B) awards (or the filing of a registration statement on Form S-8 with the SEC in respect of such awards) pursuant to our existing equity incentive plans, (C) the sale of shares of our common stock to employees pursuant to our existing employee stock purchase plans, (D) the issuance of shares of our common stock upon the exercise of an option or warrant, and the vesting of equity awards outstanding under our existing equity incentive plans, or the conversion of a security outstanding on the date of the underwriting agreement, or (E) the issuance of shares of our common stock or any securities convertible into, or exercisable or exchangeable for, shares of our common stock in connection with any (1) mergers, (2) acquisition of assets, (3) joint ventures, (4) strategic alliances or licensing, collaboration or similar agreements, (5) partnerships with experts or other talent to develop or provide content or (6) equipment leasing arrangements; provided that (x) the aggregate number of shares of our common stock or securities convertible into, or exercisable or exchangeable for, shares of our common stock (on an as-converted or as-exercised basis, as the case may be) that we may issue pursuant to subclause (E) shall not exceed 10% of the number of shares of our common stock outstanding immediately after the issuance and sale of the shares, and (y) each recipient of any such shares or other securities executes a "lock-up" letter for the remainder of such 90-day restricted period. The foregoing agreement with the underwriters does not prohibit us from entering into one or more agreements to sell or issue shares of common stock or any securities convertible into, or exercisable or exchangeable for, shares of common stock in connection with transactions described in subclause (E)(1) through (6); provided that we do not issue shares in the aggregate in excess of the limit set forth in subclause (E) during a period of 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement pursuant to such agreement or agreements.

Our directors and executive officers have entered into lock up agreements with the underwriters prior to the commencement of this offering pursuant to which each of these persons, with limited exceptions, for a period of 90 days after the date of this prospectus supplement, may not, without the prior written consent of the representatives, (1) offer, pledge, announce the intention to sell, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any shares of our common stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for our common stock (including, without limitation, common stock or such other securities which may be deemed to be beneficially owned by such directors, executive officers, managers and members in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC and securities which may be issued upon exercise of a stock option or warrant) or (2) enter into any swap or other agreement that transfers, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of the common stock or such other securities, whether any such transaction described in clause (1) or (2) above is to be settled by delivery of common stock or such other securities, in cash or otherwise, or (3) make any demand for or exercise any right with respect to the registration of any shares of our common stock or any security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for our common stock.

We have agreed to indemnify the underwriters against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933.

In connection with this offering, the underwriters may engage in stabilizing transactions, which involves making bids for, purchasing and selling shares of common stock in the open market for the purpose of preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the common stock while this offering is in progress. These stabilizing transactions may include making short sales of the common stock, which involves the sale by the underwriters of a greater number of shares of common stock than they are required to purchase in this offering, and purchasing shares of common stock on the open market to cover positions created by short sales. Short sales may be "covered" shorts, which are short positions in an amount not greater than the underwriters' option to purchase additional shares referred to above, or may be "naked" shorts, which are short positions in excess of that amount. The underwriters may close out any covered short position either by exercising their option to purchase additional shares, in whole or in part, or by purchasing shares in the open market. In making this determination, the underwriters will consider, among other things, the price of shares available for purchase in the open market compared to the price at which the underwriters may purchase shares through the option to purchase additional shares. A naked short position is more likely to be created if the underwriters are concerned that there may be downward pressure on the price of the common stock in the open market that could adversely affect investors who purchase in this offering. To the extent that the underwriters create a naked short position, they will purchase shares in the open market to cover the position.

The underwriters have advised us that, pursuant to Regulation M of the Securities Act of 1933, they may also engage in other activities that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of the common stock, including the imposition of penalty bids. This means that if the representatives of the underwriters purchase common stock in the open market in stabilizing transactions or to cover short sales, the representatives can require the underwriters that sold those shares as part of this offering to repay the underwriting discount received by them.

These activities may have the effect of raising or maintaining the market price of the common stock or preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the common stock, and, as a result, the price of the common stock may be higher than the price that otherwise might exist in the open market. If the underwriters commence these activities, they may discontinue them at any time. The underwriters may carry out these transactions on The NASDAQ Global Market, in the over the counter market or otherwise.

In addition, in connection with this offering certain of the underwriters (and selling group members) may engage in passive market making transactions in our common stock on The NASDAQ Global Market prior to the pricing and completion of this offering. Passive market making consists of displaying bids on The NASDAQ Global Market no higher than the bid prices of independent market makers and making purchases at prices no higher than these independent bids and effected in response to order flow. Net purchases by a passive market maker on each day are generally limited to a specified percentage of the passive market maker's average daily trading volume in the common stock during a specified period and must be discontinued when such limit is reached. Passive market making may cause the price of our common stock to be higher than the price that otherwise would exist in the open market in the absence of these transactions. If passive market making is commenced, it may be discontinued at any time.

Other than in the United States, no action has been taken by us or the underwriters that would permit a public offering of the securities offered by this prospectus supplement in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. The securities offered by this prospectus supplement may not be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, nor may this prospectus supplement or any other offering material or advertisements in connection with the offer and sale of any such securities be distributed or published in any jurisdiction, except under circumstances that will result in compliance with the applicable rules and regulations of that jurisdiction. Persons into whose possession this prospectus supplement comes are advised to inform themselves about and to observe any restrictions relating to the offering and the distribution of this prospectus supplement. This prospectus supplement does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any securities offered by this prospectus supplement in any jurisdiction in which such an offer or a solicitation is unlawful.

You should rely only on the information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus and in any prospectus supplement. We have not authorized any other person to provide you with different information. If anyone provides you with different or inconsistent information, you should not rely on it. We are not making offers to sell or solicitations to buy the securities in any jurisdiction in which an offer or solicitation is not authorized or in which the person making that offer or solicitation is not qualified to do so or to anyone to whom it is unlawful to make an offer or solicitation. You should not assume that the information in this prospectus or any prospectus supplement, as well as the information we file or previously filed with the SEC that we incorporate by reference in this prospectus or any prospectus supplement, is accurate as of any date other than its respective date. RISK FACTORS

Investing in our securities involves risk. Please see the risk factors set forth in Part I, Item 1A in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for our most recent fiscal year, as updated by our quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and other filings we make with the SEC, as incorporated by reference in this prospectus. Additional risk factors may be included in a prospectus supplement relating to a particular series or offering of securities. Before making an investment decision, you should carefully consider these risks as well as other information we include or incorporate by reference in this prospectus. The risks and uncertainties we have described are not the only ones we face. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also affect our business operations. These risks could materially affect our business, results of operations or financial condition and cause the value of our securities to decline.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus (including the information incorporated by reference) contains certain statements that may be deemed to be “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Exchange Act. Forward-looking statements anticipate results based on our estimates, assumptions and plans that are subject to uncertainty. The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a safe harbor for forward-looking statements. All statements in this prospectus and any accompanying prospectus supplement not dealing with historical results or current facts are forward-looking and are based on estimates, assumptions and projections. Statements which include the words “believes”, “seeks”, “expects”, “may”, “should”, “intends”, “likely”, “targets”, “plans”, “anticipates”, “estimates” or the negative version of those words and similar statements of a future or forward-looking nature identify forward-looking statements.

Factors that could cause actual results to differ from those in the forward-looking statements may accompany the statements themselves. In addition, generally applicable factors that could cause actual results or outcomes to differ from those expressed in the forward-looking statements are and will be discussed in our reports on Forms 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K, incorporated by reference in this prospectus.

All forward-looking statements address matters that involve risks and uncertainties. Accordingly, there are or will be important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated in these statements. These risks and uncertainties include the rate and degree of market acceptance of AtriCure’s products, AtriCure’s ability to develop and market new and enhanced products, the timing of and ability to obtain and maintain regulatory clearances and approvals for its products, the timing of and ability to obtain reimbursement of procedures utilizing AtriCure’s products, AtriCure’s ability to consummate acquisitions or, if consummated, to successfully integrate acquired businesses into AtriCure’s operations, AtriCure’s ability to recognize the benefits of acquisitions, including potential synergies and cost savings, failure of an acquisition or acquired company to achieve its plans and objectives generally, risk that proposed or consummated acquisitions may disrupt operations or pose difficulties in employee retention or otherwise affect financial or operating results, AtriCure’s ability to raise the capital that may be required to accomplish the foregoing, competition from existing and new products and procedures or AtriCure’s ability to effectively react to other risks and uncertainties described from time to time in AtriCure’s SEC filings, such as fluctuation of quarterly financial results, reliance on third party manufacturers and suppliers, litigation or other proceedings, government regulation and stock price volatility. We do not undertake any obligation to publicly update or review any forward-looking statement.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SECURITIES WE MAY OFFER

We may issue, in one or more offerings, any combination of common stock, preferred stock, debt securities, warrants, depositary shares and units.

This prospectus contains a summary of the general terms of the various securities that we may offer. The prospectus supplement relating to any particular securities offered will describe the specific terms of the securities. The summary in this prospectus and in any prospectus supplement does not describe every aspect of the securities and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to all applicable provisions of the documents relating to the securities offered. These documents are or will be filed as exhibits to or incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

In addition, the prospectus supplement will set forth the terms of the offering, the initial public offering price and net proceeds to us. Where applicable, the prospectus supplement will also describe any material U.S. federal income tax considerations relating to the securities offered and indicate whether the securities offered are or will be listed on any securities exchange.

DESCRIPTION OF COMMON STOCK

This section summarizes the general terms of our common stock that we may offer. The prospectus supplement relating to the common stock offered will set forth the number of shares offered, the initial offering price and recent market prices, dividend information and any other relevant information. The summary in this section and in the prospectus supplement does not describe every aspect of the common stock and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to all the provisions of our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Third Amended and Restated Bylaws and to the provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

The following briefly summarizes the material terms of the common stock that we may offer, other than pricing and related terms which will be disclosed in a prospectus supplement. The total number of authorized shares of common stock is 90,000,000, par value $0.001 per share. Holders of common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of shareholders. Shareholders do not have the right to cumulate their votes in the election of directors. Our board of directors is authorized to issue the shares of common stock that are authorized but not yet issued without further shareholder approval.

Holders of our common stock are entitled to receive dividends when and if declared by our board of directors out of funds legally available therefor, subject to any contractual restrictions on the payment of dividends and to any restrictions on the payment of dividends imposed by the terms of any outstanding preferred shares or debt securities.

Upon our dissolution or liquidation or the sale of all or substantially all of our assets, after payment in full of all amounts required to be paid to creditors and to the holders of preferred shares having liquidation preferences, if any, the holders of our common stock will be entitled to receive pro rata our remaining assets available for distribution.

As of June 10, 2016, we had 33,123,362 shares of common stock outstanding. Shares of common stock carry no preemptive or conversion or subscription rights and are not subject to redemption or sinking fund provisions. All outstanding shares of common stock are, and any shares of common stock issued upon conversion of any convertible securities or exercise of employee stock options will be, fully paid and non-assessable.

Our common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Market and trades under the symbol "ATRC." Our registrar and transfer agent is American Stock Transfer & Trust Company.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Provisions of Our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws

Provisions of our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Third Amended and Restated Bylaws may have the effect of making it more difficult for a third party to acquire, or of discouraging a third party from attempting to acquire, control of us. Because our shareholders do not have cumulative voting rights, our shareholders representing a majority of the shares of common stock outstanding will be able to elect all of our directors. Our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Third Amended and Restated Bylaws provide that all shareholder action must be effected at a duly called meeting of shareholders and not by a consent in writing, and that only our board of directors, chairman of the board, chief executive officer or president (in the absence of a chief executive officer) may call a special meeting of shareholders. Our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation requires a 66 2/3% shareholder vote for the amendment, repeal or modification of certain provisions of our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Third Amended and Restated Bylaws relating to the absence of cumulative voting, limitations of liability of our directors, the requirement that shareholder actions be effected at a duly-called meeting and the designated parties entitled to call a special meeting of the shareholders.

The combination of the lack of cumulative voting and the 66 2/3% shareholder voting requirement will make it more difficult for our existing shareholders to replace our board of directors as well as for another party to obtain control of us by replacing our board of directors. Since our board of directors has the power to retain and discharge our officers, these provisions could also make it more difficult for existing shareholders or another party to effect a change in management. In addition, the authorization of undesignated preferred stock makes it possible for our board of directors to issue preferred stock with voting or other rights or preferences that could impede the success of any attempt to change our control.

These provisions may have the effect of deterring hostile takeovers or delaying changes in our control or management. These provisions are intended to enhance the likelihood of continued stability in the composition of our board of directors and in the policies they implement, and to discourage certain types of transactions that may involve an actual or threatened change of our control. These provisions are designed to reduce our vulnerability to an unsolicited acquisition proposal. The provisions also are intended to discourage certain tactics that may be used in proxy fights. However, such provisions could have the effect of discouraging others from making tender offers for our shares and, as a consequence, they also may inhibit fluctuations in the market price of our shares that could result from actual or rumored takeover attempts. Such provisions may also have the effect of preventing changes in our management.

Delaware Anti-Takeover Statute

We are subject to Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. This law prohibits a publicly held Delaware corporation from engaging in any “business combination” with any “interested shareholder” for a period of three years following the date that the shareholder became an interested shareholder unless:

- prior to the date of the transaction, the board of directors of the corporation approved either the business combination or the transaction that resulted in the shareholder becoming an interested shareholder;
- upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the shareholder becoming an interested shareholder, the interested shareholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation outstanding at the time the transaction commenced, excluding for purposes of determining the number of shares outstanding those shares owned by persons who are directors or officers or by employee stock plans in which employee participants do not have the right to determine confidentially whether shares held subject to the plan will be tendered in a tender or exchange offer; or
- on or subsequent to the date of the transaction, the business combination is approved by the board of directors and authorized at an annual or special meeting of shareholders, and not by written consent, by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock which is not owned by the interested shareholder.

Section 203 defines “business combination” to include:

- any merger or consolidation involving the corporation and the interested shareholder;

Table of Contents

- any sale, transfer, pledge or other disposition of 10% or more of our assets involving the interested shareholder;
- in general, any transaction that results in the issuance or transfer by us of any of our stock to the interested shareholder;
- any transaction involving the corporation that has the effect of increasing the proportionate share of the stock or any class or series of the corporation beneficially owned by the interested shareholder; or
- the receipt by the interested shareholder of the benefit of any loans, advances, guarantees, pledges or other financial benefits provided by or through the corporation.

In general, Section 203 defines an “interested shareholder” as an entity or person beneficially owning 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation and any entity or person affiliated with or controlling or controlled by the entity or person.

Under specific circumstances, Section 203 makes it more difficult for an “interested stockholder” to effect various business combinations with a corporation for a three-year period, although the stockholders may, be adopting an amendment to the corporation’s certificate of incorporation or bylaws, elect not to be governed by this section, effective 12 months after adoption.

Our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Third Amended and Restated Bylaws do not exclude us from the restrictions of Section 203. We anticipate that the provisions of Section 203 might encourage companies interested in acquiring us to negotiate in advance with our board of directors since the shareholder approval requirement would be avoided if a majority of the directors then in office approve either the business combination or the transaction that resulted in the shareholder becoming an interested shareholder.

DESCRIPTION OF PREFERRED STOCK

The following briefly summarizes the material terms of the preferred stock that we may offer, other than pricing and related terms which will be disclosed in a prospectus supplement. You should read the particular terms of any series of preferred stock that we offer, which we will describe in more detail in any prospectus supplement relating to such series. You should also read the more detailed provisions of our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and the statement with respect to shares relating to each particular series of preferred stock for provisions that may be important to you. The statement with respect to shares relating to each particular series of preferred stock offered by the accompanying prospectus supplement and this prospectus will be filed as an exhibit to a document incorporated by reference in the registration statement. The prospectus supplement will also state whether any of the terms summarized below do not apply to the series of preferred stock being offered.

General

Our board of directors is authorized to issue up to 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share. As of the date of this prospectus, we have not issued any shares of preferred stock. Our board of directors can issue shares of preferred stock in one or more series and can specify the following terms for each series:

- the number of shares;
- the designation, powers, preferences and rights of the shares; and
- the qualifications, limitations or restrictions, except as otherwise stated in our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation.

Before issuing any series of preferred stock, our board of directors will adopt resolutions creating and designating the series as a series of preferred stock, and the resolutions will be filed in a statement with respect to shares as an amendment to our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation.

Table of Contents

The rights of holders of the preferred stock offered may be adversely affected by the rights of holders of any shares of preferred stock that may be issued in the future. Our board of directors may cause shares of preferred stock to be issued in public or private transactions for any proper corporate purpose. Examples include issuances to obtain additional financing in connection with acquisitions or otherwise, and issuances to our officers, directors and employees and its subsidiaries pursuant to benefit plans or otherwise. The preferred stock could have the effect of acting as an anti-takeover device to prevent a change in control of us.

Unless the particular prospectus supplement states otherwise, holders of each series of preferred stock will not have any preemptive or subscription rights to acquire more of our stock.

The transfer agent, registrar, dividend disbursing agent and redemption agent for shares of each series of preferred stock will be named in the prospectus supplement relating to such series.

Rank

Unless otherwise specified in the prospectus supplement relating to the shares of any series of preferred stock, the shares will rank on an equal basis with each other series of preferred stock and prior to the common stock as to dividends and distributions of assets.

Dividends

Unless the particular prospectus supplement states otherwise, holders of each series of preferred stock will be entitled to receive cash dividends, when, as and if declared by our board of directors out of funds legally available for dividends. The rates and dates of payment of dividends will be set forth in the prospectus supplement relating to each series of preferred stock. Dividends will be payable to holders of record of preferred stock as they appear on our books. Dividends on any series of preferred stock may be cumulative or noncumulative.

We may not declare, pay or set apart for payment dividends on the preferred stock unless full dividends on any other series of preferred stock that ranks on an equal or senior basis have been paid or sufficient funds have been set apart for payment for:

- all prior dividend periods of the other series of preferred stock that pay dividends on a cumulative basis; or
- the immediately preceding dividend period of the other series of preferred stock that pay dividends on a noncumulative basis.

Partial dividends declared on shares of preferred stock and any other series of preferred stock ranking on an equal basis as to dividends will be declared pro rata. A pro rata declaration means that the ratio of dividends declared per share to accrued dividends per share will be the same for all such series of preferred stock.

Similarly, we may not declare, pay or set apart for payment non-stock dividends or make other payments on our common stock or any other stock ranking junior to the preferred stock unless full dividends on all series of preferred stock have been paid or set apart for payment for:

- all prior dividend periods if the preferred stock pays dividends on a cumulative basis; or
- the immediately preceding dividend period if the preferred stock pays dividends on a noncumulative basis.

Conversion and Exchange

The prospectus supplement for any series of preferred stock will state the terms, if any, on which shares of that series are convertible into or exchangeable for shares of our common stock.

Redemption

If so specified in the applicable prospectus supplement, a series of preferred stock may be redeemable at any time, in whole or in part, at our option or at the option of the holders, or may be mandatorily redeemed.

Any partial redemptions of preferred stock will be made in a way that our board of directors decides is equitable.

Unless we default in the payment of the redemption price, dividends will cease to accrue after the redemption date on shares of preferred stock called for redemption and all rights of holders of such shares will terminate except for the right to receive the redemption price.

Liquidation Preference

Upon our voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up, holders of each series of preferred stock will be entitled to receive distributions upon liquidation in the amount set forth in the prospectus supplement relating to such series of preferred stock, plus an amount equal to any accrued and unpaid dividends. Such distributions will be made before any distribution is made on any securities ranking junior to the preferred stock with respect to liquidation, including common stock.

If the liquidation amounts payable relating to the preferred stock of any series and any other securities ranking on a parity regarding liquidation rights are not paid in full, the holders of the preferred stock of such series and such other securities will share in any such distribution of our available assets on a ratable basis in proportion to the full liquidation preferences. Holders of such series of preferred stock will not be entitled to any other amounts from us after they have received their full liquidation preference.

Voting Rights

If we issue voting preferred stock, holders of preferred stock will be entitled to one vote per share on each matter submitted to our shareholders. If we issue non-voting preferred stock, holders of preferred stock will have no voting rights, except as required by applicable law. The prospectus supplement will state the voting rights, if any, applicable to any particular series of preferred stock.

DESCRIPTION OF DEBT SECURITIES

General

The debt securities will be governed by documents called “indentures.” An indenture is a contract between AtriCure and the trustee named in the applicable prospectus supplement, which acts as trustee for the debt securities. There may be more than one trustee under each indenture for different series of debt securities. The trustee has two main roles. First, the trustee can enforce your rights against AtriCure if AtriCure defaults. There are some limitations on the extent to which the trustee acts on your behalf, described under “—Remedies If An Event of Default Occurs.” Second, the trustee may perform administrative duties for AtriCure, such as sending you interest payments, transferring your debt securities to a new buyer if you sell, and sending you notices.

The debt securities will be unsecured general obligations of AtriCure and may include:

- senior debt securities, to be issued under the senior indenture; and
- subordinated debt securities, to be issued under the subordinated indenture.

The prospectus supplement relating to any particular debt securities offered will indicate whether the debt securities are senior debt securities or subordinated debt securities and will describe the specific terms of the debt securities. The summary in this section and in any prospectus supplement does not describe every aspect of the senior or subordinated indenture or the debt securities, and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to all the provisions of the applicable indenture and the debt securities. The forms of the senior indenture and subordinated indenture and the forms of the debt securities are or will be filed as exhibits to or incorporated by reference in the registration statement. See “Where You Can Find More Information” for information on how to obtain a copy.

This section summarizes the general terms of the senior and subordinated debt securities that we may offer. When we refer to the indenture, we mean the senior indenture and the subordinated indenture collectively, unless we indicate otherwise. When we refer to the trustee, we mean the senior trustee and the subordinated trustee collectively, unless we indicate otherwise. When we refer to the debt securities, we mean the senior and subordinated debt securities, unless we indicate otherwise.

The prospectus supplement relating to any series of debt securities will describe the following specific financial, legal and other terms particular to such series of debt securities:

- the title of the debt securities;
- any limit on the aggregate principal amount of the debt securities;
- the date or dates on which the debt securities will mature;
- the rate or rates (which may be fixed or variable) at which the debt securities will bear interest, if any, and the date or dates from which the interest will accrue;
- the dates on which interest on the debt securities will be payable and the regular record dates for those interest payment dates;
- the place or places where the principal and premium, if any, and interest, if any, shall be payable, where the debt securities may be surrendered for transfer or exchange, and where notices and demands may be served;
- the date, if any, after which and the price or prices at which the debt securities may, in accordance with any option or mandatory redemption provisions, be redeemed and the other detailed terms and provisions of any such optional or mandatory redemption provision;
- any mandatory or optional sinking funds or analogous provisions or provisions for redemption at the holder’s option;
- the denomination in which the debt securities will be issuable, if other than denominations of $1,000 and any integral multiple thereof;
- if other than the principal amount thereof, the portion of the principal amount of the debt securities which will be payable upon the declaration of acceleration of the maturity of those debt securities;
- any addition to, or modification or deletion of, any events of default or covenants with respect to the securities;
- any provision relating to the defeasance of our obligations in connection with the debt securities;
- any provision regarding exchangeability or conversion of the debt securities into our common stock or other securities;
- whether any debt securities will be issued in the form of a global security, and, if different than described below under “Book-Entry Securities,” any circumstances under which a global security may be exchanged for debt securities registered in the names of persons other than the depositary for the global security or its nominee;
- the subordination provisions applicable to the subordinated debt securities; and
- any other material terms of the debt securities.

The terms of any series of debt securities may vary from the terms described here. Thus, this summary also is subject to and qualified by reference to the description of the particular terms of your debt securities to be described in the prospectus supplement. The prospectus supplement relating to the debt securities will be attached to the front of this prospectus.

The indenture and its associated documents will contain the full legal text of the matters described in this section. The indenture and the debt securities will be governed by New York law.

Events of Default

You will have special rights if an “event of default” occurs, with respect to any series of debt securities, and is not cured, as described later in this subsection. Under the indenture, the term “event of default” will mean any of the following:

- AtriCure does not pay interest on a debt security within 30 days of its due date;
- AtriCure does not pay the principal or any premium on a debt security on its due date;
- AtriCure remains in breach of any covenant or warranty described in the indenture for 90 days after AtriCure receives a notice stating it is in breach, which notice must be sent by either the trustee or direct holders of at least 25% of the principal amount of outstanding debt securities;
- AtriCure fails to pay an amount of debt as defined in any mortgage, indenture, security agreement or other instrument totaling more than $25,000,000 in principal amount, AtriCure’s obligation to repay is accelerated by its lenders, and this payment obligation remains accelerated for 30 days after AtriCure receives notice of default as described in the previous paragraph;
- AtriCure becomes subject to one or more final, non-appealable judgments, orders or decrees requiring payments of more than $25,000,000 and such judgments, orders or decrees remain unsatisfied for 60 days during which a stay of enforcement has not been in effect after AtriCure receives notice as described two paragraphs above; or
- certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of AtriCure.

Remedies if an Event of Default Occurs

If an event of default has occurred and has not been cured (if a cure period is provided for), the trustee or the direct holders of 25% in principal amount of the outstanding debt securities may declare the entire principal amount of all the debt securities of that series to be due and immediately payable. This is called a “declaration of acceleration of maturity.”

Except in cases of default, whereby a trustee has some special duties, a trustee will not be required to take any action under the indenture at the request of any direct holders unless the direct holders offer the trustee reasonable protection from costs, expenses and liability (called an “indemnity”). If reasonable indemnity is provided, the direct holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of the relevant series may direct the time, method and place of conducting any lawsuit or other formal legal action seeking any remedy available to the trustee. These majority direct holders may also direct the trustee in performing any other action under the indenture.

In general, before you bypass the trustee and bring your own lawsuit or other formal legal action or take other steps to enforce your rights or protect your interests relating to the debt securities, the following must occur:

- you must give the trustee written notice that an event of default has occurred and remains uncured;
- the direct holders of at least 25% in principal amount of all outstanding debt securities of the relevant series must make a written request that the trustee take action in its own name as trustee because of the default, and must offer reasonable indemnity to the trustee against the costs, expenses and other liabilities of taking that action;

- the trustee must have not taken action for 60 days after receipt of the above notice and offer of indemnity; and
- the trustee must not have received from direct holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of that series a direction inconsistent with the written notice during the 60 day period after receipt of the above notice.

However, you are entitled at any time to bring a lawsuit for the payment of money due on your debt security on or after its due date.

Modification

There are three types of changes we can make to the indentures and the debt securities.

Changes Requiring Your Approval

First, there are changes that cannot be made to the indentures or your debt securities without your specific approval. The following is a list of those types of changes:

- change the payment due date;
- reduce any amounts due on a debt security;
- reduce the amount of principal payable upon acceleration of the maturity of a debt security following a default;
- impair your right to sue for payment;
- reduce the percentage in principal amount of debt securities, the consent of whose holders is required to modify or amend the indenture;
- reduce the percentage in principal amount of debt securities, the consent of whose holders is required to waive compliance with certain provisions of the indenture or to waive certain defaults; and
- modify any other aspect of the provisions dealing with modification and waiver of the indenture.

Changes Requiring a Majority Vote

The second type of change to the indentures and the debt securities is the kind that requires consent of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding debt securities of the particular series affected. With a majority vote, the holders may waive past defaults, provided that such defaults are not of the type described previously under “Changes Requiring Your Approval.”

Changes Not Requiring Approval

The third type of change does not require any vote by direct holders of debt securities. This type is limited to clarifications and certain other changes that would not adversely affect holders of the debt securities.

Consolidation, Merger and Sale of Assets

AtriCure may consolidate or merge with or into another entity, and AtriCure may sell or lease substantially all of AtriCure’s assets to another corporation if the following conditions, among others, are met:

- where AtriCure merges out of existence or sells or leases substantially all its assets, the other entity must be a corporation, partnership or trust organized under the laws of a state or the District of Columbia or under federal law, and it must agree to be legally responsible for the debt securities; and

- the merger, sale of assets or other transaction must not cause a default or an event of default on the debt securities.

Form, Exchange, Registration and Transfer

Generally, we will issue debt securities only in registered global form. See “Book-Entry Securities” below. However, if specified in the prospectus supplement, we may issue certificated securities in definitive form.

You may have your debt securities broken into more debt securities of smaller denominations or combined into fewer debt securities of larger denominations, as long as the total principal amount is not changed. This is called an “exchange.”

You may exchange or transfer debt securities at the office of the trustee. The trustee acts as our agent for registering debt securities in the names of holders and transferring debt securities. We may appoint another entity or perform this role itself. The entity performing the role of maintaining the list of registered direct holders is called the “security registrar.” It will also perform transfers. You will not be required to pay a service charge to transfer or exchange debt securities, but you may be required to pay for any tax or other governmental charge associated with the exchange or transfer. The transfer or exchange will only be made if the security registrar is satisfied with your proof of ownership.

If the debt securities are redeemable and AtriCure redeems less than all of the debt securities of a particular series, AtriCure may block the transfer or exchange of those debt securities during the period beginning 15 days before the day AtriCure mails the notice of redemption and ending on the day of that mailing, in order to freeze the list of holders to prepare the mailing. We may also refuse to register transfers or exchanges of debt securities selected for redemption, except that we will continue to permit transfers and exchanges of the unredeemed portion of any debt security being partially redeemed.

Book-Entry Securities

The debt securities will be represented by one or more global securities. Unless otherwise indicated in the prospectus supplement, the global security representing the debt securities will be deposited with, or on behalf of, The Depository Trust Company (“DTC”), New York, New York, or other successor depository we appoint, and registered in the name of the depository or its nominee. The debt securities will not be issued in definitive form unless otherwise provided in the prospectus supplement.

DTC will act as securities depository for the securities. The debt securities will be issued as fully registered securities registered in the name of Cede & Co. (DTC’s nominee).

DTC has informed us as follows:

- DTC is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a “banking organization” within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a “clearing corporation” within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code, and a “clearing agency” registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Exchange Act.
- DTC holds securities that its participants deposit with DTC and facilitates the settlement among participants of securities transactions, such as transfers and pledges, in deposited securities through electronic computerized book-entry changes in participants’ accounts, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of securities certificates.
- Direct participants include securities brokers and dealers, trust companies, clearing corporations, and certain other organizations.
- DTC is owned by a number of its direct participants and by the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., the American Stock Exchange, Inc. and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

Table of Contents

- Access to the DTC system is also available to indirect participants such as securities brokers and dealers, banks and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a direct participant, either directly or indirectly.
- The rules applicable to DTC and its direct and indirect participants are on file with the SEC.

We have provided the following descriptions of the operations and procedures of DTC solely as a matter of convenience. These operations and procedures are solely within the control of DTC and are subject to change by them from time to time. Neither we, any underwriter nor the trustee take any responsibility for these operations or procedures, and you are urged to contact DTC or its participants directly to discuss these matters.

We expect that under procedures established by DTC:

- Upon deposit of the global securities with DTC or its custodian, DTC will credit on its internal system the accounts of direct participants designated by the underwriters with portions of the principal amounts of the global securities; and
- Ownership of the debt securities will be shown on, and the transfer of ownership of the debt securities will be effected only through, records maintained by DTC or its nominee, with respect to interests of direct participants, and the records of direct and indirect participants, with respect to interests of persons other than participants.

The laws of some jurisdictions require that purchasers of securities take physical delivery of those securities in the form of a certificate. For that reason, it may not be possible to transfer interests in a global security to those persons. In addition, because DTC can act only on behalf of its participants, who in turn act on behalf of persons who hold interests through participants, the ability of a person having an interest in a global security to pledge or transfer that interest to persons or entities that do not participate in DTC's system, or otherwise to take actions in respect of that interest, may be affected by the lack of a physical definitive security in respect of that interest.

So long as DTC or its nominee is the registered owner of a global security, DTC or that nominee will be considered the sole owner or holder of the debt securities represented by that global security for all purposes under the mortgage indenture and under the debt securities. Except as described below, owners of beneficial interests in a global security will not be entitled to have debt securities represented by that global security registered in their names, will not receive or be entitled to receive the debt securities in the form of a physical certificate and will not be considered the owners or holders of the debt securities under the mortgage indenture or under the debt securities, and may not be entitled to give the trustee directions, instructions or approvals. For that reason, each holder owning a beneficial interest in a global security must rely on DTC's procedures and, if that holder is not a direct or indirect participant in DTC, on the procedures of the DTC participant through which that holder owns its interest, to exercise any rights of a holder of debt securities under the mortgage indenture or the global security.

We will not have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of DTC's records relating to the debt securities or relating to payments made by DTC on account of the debt securities, or any responsibility to maintain, supervise or review any of DTC's records relating to the debt securities.

We will make payments on the debt securities represented by the global securities to DTC or its nominee, as the registered owner of the debt securities. We expect that when DTC or its nominee receives any payment on the debt securities represented by a global security, DTC will credit participants' accounts with payments in amounts proportionate to their beneficial interests in the global security as shown in DTC's records. We also expect that payments by DTC's participants to owners of beneficial interests in the global security held through those participants will be governed by standing instructions and customary practice as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of customers registered in the names of nominees for such customers. DTC's participants will be responsible for those payments.

Payments on the debt securities represented by the global securities will be made in immediately available funds. Transfers between participants in DTC will be made in accordance with DTC's rules and will be settled in immediately available funds.

Notices

Notices to holders of debt securities will be given by mail to the addresses of such holders as they appear in the security register.

The Trustee

U.S. Bank National Association will act as trustee under each of the senior debt indenture and the subordinated debt indenture.

DESCRIPTION OF WARRANTS

We may issue warrants for the purchase of common stock, debt securities or other securities registered pursuant to this registration statement and described in this prospectus. We may issue warrants independently or together with other securities that may be attached to or separate from the warrants. We will issue each series of warrants under a separate warrant agreement that will be entered into between us and a bank or trust company, as warrant agent, and will be described in the prospectus supplement relating to the particular issue of warrants. The warrant agent will act solely as our agent in connection with the warrant of such series and will not assume any obligation or relationship of agency for or with holders or beneficial owners of warrants. The following describes certain general terms and provisions of debt warrants or common stock warrants we may offer. We will set forth further terms of the debt warrants, common stock warrants or warrants to purchase other securities and the applicable warrant agreement in the applicable prospectus supplement.

Common Stock and Preferred Stock Warrants

The applicable prospectus supplement will describe the terms of any common stock or preferred stock warrants, including the following:

- the title of such warrants;
- the offering price of such warrants, which we may distribute proportionately free of charge to our shareholders (in the applicable prospectus supplement, we may refer to warrants distributed proportionately free of charge to our shareholders as rights to purchase our common stock and any securities not taken by our shareholders may be reoffered to the public);
- the aggregate number of such warrants;
- the designation and terms of the securities purchasable upon exercise of such warrants;
- if applicable, the designation and terms of the securities with which such warrants are issued and the number of such warrants issued with each such security;
- if applicable, the date from and after which such warrants and any securities issued therewith will be separately transferable;
- the number of shares of securities purchasable upon exercise of the warrants and the price at which such shares may be purchased upon exercise;

- if applicable, the minimum or maximum amount of such warrants which may be exercised at any one time;
- the currency, currencies or currency units in which the offering price, if any, and the exercise price are payable;
- if applicable, a discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax considerations;
- the identity of the warrant agent for the warrants; and
- the antidilution provisions of the warrants, if any.

Debt Warrants

The applicable prospectus supplement will describe the terms of any debt warrants, including the following:

- the title of the debt warrants;
- the offering price for the debt warrants;
- the aggregate number of the debt warrants;
- the designation and terms of the debt securities purchasable upon exercise of such debt warrants;
- if applicable, the designation and terms of the securities with which such debt warrants are issued and the number of such debt warrants issued with each security;
- if applicable, the date from and after which such debt warrants and any securities issued therewith will be separately transferable;
- the principal amount of debt securities purchasable upon exercise of a debt warrant and the price at which such principal amount of debt securities may be purchased upon exercise;
- the date on which the right to exercise such debt warrants shall commence and the date on which such right shall expire;
- if applicable, the minimum or maximum amount of such debt warrants which may be exercised at any one time;
- whether the debt warrants represented by the debt warrant certificates or debt securities that may be issued upon exercise of the debt warrants will be issued in registered form;
- information with respect to book-entry procedures, if any;
- the currency, currencies or currency units in which the offering price, if any, and the exercise price are payable;
- if applicable, a discussion of certain U.S. federal income tax considerations;
- the identity of the warrant agent for the warrants;
- the antidilution provisions of such debt warrants, if any;
- the redemption or call provisions, if any, applicable to such debt warrants; and
- any additional terms of the debt warrants, including terms, procedures and limitations relating to the exchange and exercise of such debt warrants.

DESCRIPTION OF DEPOSITARY SHARES

The following briefly summarizes the provisions of the depositary shares and depositary receipts that we may issue from time to time and which would be important to holders of depositary shares and depositary receipts, other than pricing and related terms, which will be disclosed in the applicable prospectus supplement. The prospectus supplement will also state whether any of the general provisions summarized below do not apply to the depositary shares or depositary receipts being offered and provide any additional provisions applicable to the depositary shares or depositary receipts being offered. The following description and any description in a prospectus supplement may not be complete and are subject to, and qualified in their entirety by reference to the terms and provisions of the form of deposit agreement filed as an exhibit to the registration statement which contains this prospectus.

Depositary Shares

We may offer depositary shares evidenced by depositary receipts. Each depositary share represents a fraction or a multiple of a share of a particular series of preferred stock that we issue and deposit with a depositary. The fraction or the multiple of a share of preferred stock, which each depositary share represents, will be set forth in the applicable prospectus supplement.

We will deposit the shares of any series of preferred stock represented by depositary shares according to the provisions of a deposit agreement to be entered into between us and a bank or trust company, which we will select as its preferred stock depositary. We will name the depositary in the applicable prospectus supplement. Each holder of a depositary share will be entitled to all the rights and preferences of the underlying preferred stock in proportion to the applicable fraction or multiple of a share of preferred stock represented by the depositary share. These rights include any applicable dividend, voting, redemption, conversion and liquidation rights. The depositary will send the holders of depositary shares all reports and communications that we deliver to the depositary and which we are required to furnish to the holders of depositary shares.

Depositary Receipts

The depositary shares will be evidenced by depositary receipts issued pursuant to the deposit agreement. Depositary receipts will be distributed to anyone who is buying the fractional shares of preferred stock in accordance with the terms of the applicable prospectus supplement.

Withdrawal of Preferred Stock

Unless the related depositary shares have previously been called for redemption, a holder of depositary shares may receive the number of whole shares of the related series of preferred stock and any money or other property represented by the holder's depositary receipts after surrendering the depositary receipts at the corporate trust office of the depositary, paying any taxes, charges and fees provided for in the deposit agreement and complying with any other requirement of the deposit agreement. Partial shares of preferred stock will not be issued. If the surrendered depositary shares exceed the number of depositary shares that represent the number of whole shares of preferred stock the holder wishes to withdraw, then the depositary will deliver to the holder at the same time a new depositary receipt evidencing the excess number of depositary shares. Once the holder has withdrawn the preferred stock, the holder will not be entitled to re-deposit that preferred stock under the deposit agreement or to receive depositary shares in exchange for such preferred stock.

Dividends and Other Distributions

The depositary will distribute to record holders of depositary shares any cash dividends or other cash distributions it receives on preferred stock. Each holder will receive these distributions in proportion to the number of depositary shares owned by the holder. The depositary will distribute only whole U.S. dollars and cents. The depositary will add any fractional cents not distributed to the next sum received for distribution to record holders of depositary shares.

In the event of a non-cash distribution, the depositary will distribute property to the record holders of depositary shares, unless the depositary determines that it is not feasible to make such a distribution. If this occurs, the depositary may, with our approval, sell the property and distribute the net proceeds from the sale to the holders.

The amounts distributed to holders of depositary shares will be reduced by any amounts required to be withheld by the preferred stock depositary or by us on account of taxes or other governmental charges.

Redemption of Depositary Shares

If the series of preferred stock represented by depositary shares is subject to redemption, then we will give the necessary proceeds to the depositary. The depositary will then redeem the depositary shares using the funds it received from us for the preferred stock. The redemption price per depositary share will be equal to the redemption price payable per share for the applicable series of the preferred stock and any other amounts per share payable with respect to the preferred stock multiplied by the fraction of a share of preferred stock represented by one depositary share. Whenever we redeem shares of preferred stock held by the depositary, the depositary will redeem the depositary shares representing the shares of preferred stock on the same day, provided we have paid in full to the depositary the redemption price of the preferred stock to be redeemed and any accrued and unpaid dividends. If fewer than all the depositary shares of a series are to be redeemed, the depositary shares will be selected by lot or ratably or by any other equitable method as the depositary will decide.

After the date fixed for redemption, the depositary shares called for redemption will no longer be considered outstanding. Therefore, all rights of holders of the depositary shares will cease, except that the holders will still be entitled to receive any cash payable upon the redemption and any money or other property to which the holder was entitled at the time of redemption. To receive this amount or other property, the holders must surrender the depositary receipts evidencing their depositary shares to the preferred stock depositary. Any funds that we deposit with the preferred stock depositary for any depositary shares that the holders fail to redeem will be returned to us after a period of two years from the date we deposit the funds.

Voting the Preferred Stock

Upon receipt of notice of any meeting at which the holders of preferred stock are entitled to vote, the depositary will notify holders of depositary shares of the upcoming vote and arrange to deliver our voting materials to the holders. The record date for determining holders of depositary shares that are entitled to vote will be the same as the record date for the preferred stock. The materials the holders will receive will describe the matters to be voted on and explain how the holders, on a certain date, may instruct the depositary to vote the shares of preferred stock underlying the depositary shares. For instructions to be valid, the depositary must receive them on or before the date specified. To the extent possible, the depositary will vote the shares as instructed by the holder. We agree to take all reasonable actions that the depositary determines are necessary to enable it to vote as a holder has instructed. The depositary will abstain from voting shares of preferred stock deposited under a deposit agreement if it has not received specific instructions from the holder of the depositary shares representing those shares.

Amendment and Termination of the Deposit Agreement

We may agree with the depositary to amend the deposit agreement and the form of depositary receipt at any time. However, any amendment that materially and adversely alters the rights of the holders of depositary receipts will not be effective unless it has been approved by the holders of at least a majority of the affected depositary shares then outstanding. We will make no amendment that impairs the right of any holder of depositary shares, as described above under “—Withdrawal of Preferred Stock,” to receive shares of preferred stock and any money or other property represented by those depositary shares, except in order to comply with mandatory provisions of applicable law. If an amendment becomes effective, holders are deemed to agree to the amendment and to be bound by the amended deposit agreement if they continue to hold their depositary receipts.

The deposit agreement automatically terminates if a final distribution in respect of the preferred stock has been made to the holders of depositary receipts in connection with our liquidation, dissolution or winding-up. We may also terminate the deposit agreement at any time we wish with at least 60 days prior written notice to the depositary. If we do so, the depositary will give notice of termination to the record holders not less than 30 days before the termination date. Once depositary receipts are surrendered to the depositary, it will send to each holder the number of whole or fractional shares of the series of preferred stock underlying that holder's depositary receipts.

Charges of Depositary and Expenses

We will pay all transfer and other taxes and governmental charges arising solely from the existence of the depositary arrangements. We will pay all charges of the depositary in connection with the initial deposit of the related series of offered preferred stock, the initial issuance of the depositary shares, all withdrawals of shares of the related series of offered preferred stock by holders of the depositary shares and the registration of transfers of title to any depositary shares. However, holders of depositary receipts will pay other taxes and governmental charges and any other charges provided in the deposit agreement to be payable by them.

Limitations on Our Obligations and Liability to Holders of Depositary Receipts

The deposit agreement will expressly limit our obligations and the obligations of the depositary. It will also limit our liability and the liability of the depositary as follows:

- we and the depositary are only liable to the holders of depositary receipts for negligence or willful misconduct; and
- we and the depositary have no obligation to become involved in any legal or other proceeding related to the depositary receipts or the deposit agreement on your behalf or on behalf of any other party, unless you provide us with satisfactory indemnity.

Resignation and Removal of Depositary

The depositary may resign at any time by notifying us of its election to do so. In addition, we may remove the depositary at any time. Within 60 days after the delivery of the notice of resignation or removal of the depositary, we will appoint a successor depositary.

Reports to Holders

We will deliver all required reports and communications to holders of the offered preferred stock to the depositary, and it will forward those reports and communications to the holders of depositary shares.

ISSUANCE OF COMMON STOCK PURSUANT TO OUR ACQUISITION OF NCONTACT

Effective October 13, 2015, we acquired nContact pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among AtriCure, two wholly-owned subsidiaries of AtriCure, and WRYP Stockholders Services, LLC, solely in its capacity as representative of the stockholders ("Representative"). As consideration for the merger, we paid upfront consideration of 3,452,152 shares of our common stock and approximately $7.6 million in cash and deposited an additional 304,876 shares of our common stock into an escrow established pursuant to the Merger Agreement for post-closing claims.

Subject to meeting certain additional performance milestones throughout the five-year period beginning January 1, 2016, as more particularly described in the Merger Agreement, the nContact stockholders will be eligible to receive additional consideration in the form of earn out payments (the "Earn-Out"). The Earn-Out may be paid in a combination of cash and our common stock. The Merger Agreement provides that the maximum number of shares that may be issued by AtriCure in connection with all of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Earn-Out, shall not exceed 19.9% of AtriCure's outstanding shares of common stock prior to the acquisition of nContact. This prospectus relates to the resale of the 3,757,028 shares of our common stock previously issued, and up to 1,902,956 additional shares that may be issued pursuant to the Earn-Out by us to the former stockholders of nContact (the "selling securityholders") in connection with the Merger Agreement.

SELLING SECURITYHOLDERS

The shares of common stock to be sold pursuant to this prospectus identified in the table below were issued in a private placement to the selling securityholders in connection with the consummation of transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement described above in "Issuance of Common Stock Pursuant to our Acquisition of nContact." When we refer to the selling securityholders in this prospectus, we mean the holders listed in the table below, as well as their permitted transferees, assignees, donees, pledgees and successors in interest.

The Registration Statement of which this prospectus forms a part has been filed pursuant to registration rights granted to the selling securityholders in the Merger Agreement in order to permit the selling securityholders to resell to the public shares of our common stock, as well as any shares of common stock that we may issue or may be issuable by reason of the Earn-Out. We will pay certain expenses of the registration of the selling securityholders' shares of our common stock, including SEC filing fees, but the selling securityholders will pay all underwriting discounts and commissions, if any.

Securityholders that received shares pursuant to the Merger Agreement entered into a Lock-Up and Liquidity Agreement. Pursuant to the Lock-Up and Liquidity Agreement and subject to certain exceptions, for a period that ended the 180th day following the closing of the Merger (the "Lock-Up Period"), the selling securityholders agreed that they would not offer, sell, contract to sell, pledge, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, lend, make any short sale or otherwise transfer, hedge or dispose of any of our shares, enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers our shares, make any demand for or exercise any right with respect to registration of any of our shares, or publicly announce the intention to do any of the foregoing, without our prior written consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, AtriCure agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts after the closing to undertake an organized liquidity event that gives selling securityholders the right, during the Lock-Up Period, to sell up to 50% of such selling securityholder's shares received pursuant to the Merger Agreement. The Lock-Up Period does not apply to any of our shares issued as part of any Earn-Outs.

Pursuant to registration rights granted in the Merger Agreement, each selling securityholder must promptly notify us in writing of any changes in the information set forth in the Registration Statement regarding the selling securityholder. We may, by giving two (2) days prior written notice to each selling securityholder, delay or suspend the Registration Statement and require that all selling securityholders immediately cease sales of shares of our common stock pursuant to the Registration Statement, for a period no longer than fourteen (14) calendar days, in the event that: (i) we are involved in any activity, transaction, preparations or negotiations that we desire to keep confidential for business reasons and we in good faith determine that the public disclosure requirements imposed on us pursuant to the Registration Statement would require a disclosure that could cause us imminent and material harm; or (ii) any other event occurs that makes any statement of a material fact in the Registration Statement untrue or requires additions or changes to the Registration Statement; provided, however, that we may only use this right twice in any twelve-month period.

The table below sets forth certain information known to us with respect to the beneficial ownership of the shares of our common stock held by the selling securityholders as of October 13, 2015. Given that the selling securityholders may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of all, some or none of the shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus, we cannot determine the number of such shares that will be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of by the selling securityholders, or the amount or percentage of shares of our common stock that will be held by the selling securityholders upon termination of this offering. See “Plan of Distribution.” For the purposes of the table below, we assume that the selling securityholders will sell all of their shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus.

In the table below, the percentage of shares beneficially owned is based on 33,123,362 shares of our common stock outstanding as of June 10, 2016. Beneficial ownership is determined under the rules of the SEC and generally includes voting or investment power with respect to securities. The entities named in the table below have sole voting and sole investment power with respect to all shares beneficially owned.

Except as described herein, none of the selling securityholders has had any material relationship with us except with respect to ownership of the shares of common stock.

We and the selling securityholders may offer the securities covered by this prospectus in any of the following ways (or in any combination) from time to time:

- to or through underwriters or dealers;
- directly to purchasers or to a single purchaser;
- through agents; or

In addition, we and any selling securityholder may enter into derivative or other hedging transactions with third parties, or sell securities not covered by this prospectus to third parties in privately negotiated transactions. If any applicable prospectus supplement indicates, in connection with such a transaction, such third parties may, pursuant to this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement, sell securities covered by this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement. If so, the third party may use securities borrowed from others to settle such sales and may use securities received from us to close out any related short positions. We and the selling securityholders may also loan or pledge securities covered by this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement to third parties, who may sell the loaned securities or, in an event of default in the case of a pledge, sell the pledged securities pursuant to this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement.

Any applicable prospectus supplement will set forth the terms of the offering of the securities covered by this prospectus, including:

The securities may be offered and sold from time to time in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed price or prices or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. Any delayed delivery contracts will be subject only to those conditions set forth in any applicable prospectus supplement, and any applicable prospectus supplement will set forth any commissions we pay for solicitation of these delayed delivery contracts.

Each underwriter, dealer and agent participating in the distribution of any offered securities that are issuable in bearer form will agree that it will not offer, sell, resell or deliver, directly or indirectly, offered securities in bearer form in the United States or to U.S. persons except as otherwise permitted by Treasury Regulations Section 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D).

Offered securities may also be offered and sold, if so indicated in any applicable prospectus supplement, in connection with a remarketing upon their purchase, in accordance with a redemption or repayment pursuant to their terms, or otherwise, by one or more remarketing firms, acting as principals for their own accounts or as agents for us or the selling securityholders. Any remarketing firm will be identified and the terms of its agreements, if any, with us, and its compensation will be described in any applicable prospectus supplement.

We and the selling securityholders may sell equity securities in an offering "at the market," as defined in Rule 415 under the Securities Act. A post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement will be filed to identify the underwriter(s) at the time of the take-down for "at the market" offerings.

Agents, underwriters and other third parties described above may be entitled under relevant underwriting or other agreements to indemnification by us or the selling securityholders against certain civil liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribution with respect to payments which the agents, underwriters or other third parties may be required to make in respect thereof. Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited)

1 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Description of Business and Basis of Presentation

nContact Surgical, Inc. and Subsidiaries (the Company) is a Delaware corporation operating in Morrisville, North Carolina. The Company was incorporated on July 15, 2004, with a focus on providing cardiac tissue coagulation devices used during surgical procedures. The Company has sales of its product in the United States and Europe.

On March 5, 2014, the Company entered into a Membership Interest Purchase Agreement with Paul Funkhouser for the purchase of 100% of the membership interests of Shared Healthcare Metrics, LLC for a nominal amount. The Board of Directors approved this purchase agreement by written consent as it deemed it to be in the best interest of the Company.

Since inception, the Company has devoted substantially all of its efforts towards developing and marketing its technology. For the period ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, the Company has consolidated negative cash flows from operations of $4,161,674 and $2,836,430 respectively and a consolidated loss from operations of $4,587,172 and $3,532,667. As of September 30, 2015 and 2014, the Company has a consolidated accumulated deficit of $72,959,609 and $63,586,119 respectively. Management's plans include increasing sales, continued development and marketing of its product and diligent management of expenses. In November 2014, the Company entered into a Loan and Security agreement for $20,000,000 to provide additional capital for the Company.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary, Shared Healthcare Metrics, LLC. All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates include the allowance for doubtful accounts, deferred revenue, inventory allowances, deferred tax asset valuation allowances, valuation of stock warrant liabilities and stock-based compensation expense. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less from the balance sheet date to be cash equivalents.

Short-term Investments

The Company considers all investments with a maturity of more than three months but less than a year from the balance sheet date as short-term investments. Short-term investments consist of government and corporate bonds. The investments are classified as trading securities, and are carried at cost plus unrealized gain or loss which approximates fair value. Unrealized holding gains and losses are included in earnings. For purpose of determining realized gains and losses, the cost of securities sold is based on specific identification.

Credit Risk

Financial instruments, which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk, consist principally of cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments and accounts receivables. Cash deposits are held in federally insured financial institutions in the United States of America. However, at times, deposits have exceeded the amount insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable, which subject the Company to credit risk, are stated at net realizable value. Sales are made to hospitals located throughout the United States and Europe. Accounts receivable are typically due within 30 days for domestic customers and due within 60-90 days for foreign customers. Amounts outstanding for longer than the payment terms are considered past due. At each balance sheet date, the Company assesses its need for an allowance for potential losses in the collection of its accounts receivable. Estimated losses are based on experience and management's opinion of the current status of existing receivables. At September 30, 2015 and 2014, the Company determined that no allowance was necessary.

Inventory

Inventory is comprised of parts used in the Company's coagulation devices or sold as an accessory to the devices. Inventory is valued at lower of cost or market and is accounted for on a first-in, first-out (FIFO) basis. The evaluation of inventory obsolescence involves an approach that incorporates both recent historical information and management estimates of trends. As of September 30, 2015 and 2014, the Company maintained reserves of $25,000 to reduce its inventory to its net realizable value.

Deferred Financing Costs

Deferred financing costs represent the direct costs of entering into the Company's Loan and Security Agreement in November 2014 detailed further in Note 5. These costs are amortized as interest expense using the effective interest method over the term of the loan and are presented on the balance sheet, net of accumulated amortization.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment consists primarily of laboratory, production and computer equipment, which are recorded at cost and depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives, ranging from three to ten years. Depreciation expense for the periods ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, was $138,060 and $131,364, respectively.

Repairs and maintenance costs are expensed as incurred.

Impairment of Long-lived Assets

The Company evaluates the recoverability of its property and equipment on an annual basis or more frequently if certain events occur that indicate impairment. The Company assesses long-lived assets for impairment by comparing net book value of such assets to the estimated future undiscounted cash flows attributable to such assets. Accordingly, when indicators of impairment are present, the Company evaluates the carrying value of these assets in relation to the operating performance of these assets and future undiscounted cash flows expected to result from the use of these assets. No such impairments have been recognized during the periods ended September 30, 2015 and 2014.

Revenue Recognition

The Company enters into sales arrangements that may provide for multiple deliverables to a customer. Sales of medical equipment primarily consists of disposable surgical ablation devices. Generators and other capital equipment (such as the Company's monitors, and laptops) are loaned at no cost to direct customers that use the Company's disposable products. Depreciation of such assets is included in cost of sales. The Company identifies all goods and/or services that are to be delivered separately under a sales arrangement and allocates revenue to each deliverable based on relative fair values. Fair values are generally established based on the prices charged when sold separately by the Company. In general, revenues are separated between medical equipment, and the loaning of the required generators and laptops. The allocated revenue for each deliverable is then recognized ratably based on relative fair values of the components of the sale. Revenue from the sales of the disposal devices is recognized when a sale is made to a customer, in accordance with shipping terms, which is generally upon the shipment of goods. Shipping and handling costs are included within cost of sales in the statements of operations. Shipping costs billed to customers are included in revenues.

Additionally, the Company provides customers with a generator on loan and defers a portion of the revenue from the related generators based on the relative fair value of the equipment lease. The generator lease agreements typically are for a one year period, after which, the lease will auto-renew for an additional period of one year or until the Customer returns the generator. As the lease period of the generator is not a fixed term, the Company utilizes an assumption regarding the average number of auto renewals based on historical data. This assumption is then used to estimate the fair value of the loaned generator based on the estimated lease period. This deferred lease revenue is recognized ratably, on a straight-line basis, over the abovementioned estimated lease period.

Revenues and accounts receivable from individual customers that are equal to or greater than 10% of revenues or accounts receivable are as follows:

	September 30, 2015		September 30, 2014
	Percent Revenue	Percent Accounts Receivable	Percent Revenue	Percent Accounts Receivable
Customer A	*	11%	*	*%
Customer B	*		*	11%
Customer C	*		*	11%

* Less than 10%

Research and Development

The Company expenses research and development costs as incurred. These costs primarily consist of salaries, consulting fees, development materials and supplies directly involved in the research and development of new technology. Research and development costs totaled $586,677 and $595,950 for the periods ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively, and are shown as research and development expenses in the accompanying statements of operations.

Sales Tax

Sales taxes and other taxes collected from customers and remitted to governmental authorities are presented on a net basis and, as such, are excluded from revenues.

Stock-based Compensation

Stock-based compensation cost is measured at the grant date based on the fair value of the award and is recognized as an expense over the requisite service period, which is the vesting period. Stock-based compensation costs for stock options are recognized on a straight-line basis.

Table of Contents

The fair value of options granted is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes-Merton option pricing model based on the assumptions in the table below.

September 30	2015	2014
Expected dividend yield	0.00%	0.00%
Weighted average expected stock price volatility	82.9%	91.5%
Range of expected stock price volatility	29% to 172%	29% to 206%
Weighted average risk-free interest rate	0.70%	0.40%
Range of risk-free interest rate	0.70%	0.40%
Expected life of options	2.5 years	2 years

The expected life of the options is based on evaluations of historical and expected future employee exercise behavior. The risk-free interest rate is based on the U.S. Treasury rates at the date of grant with maturity dates approximately equal to the expected life at the grant date. Volatility is based on the historical volatility of several public entities that are similar to the Company, as the Company does not have sufficient historical transactions of its own shares on which to base expected volatility.

Restricted Stock

As needed, the Company will grant restricted common stock to executives and consultants. These shares vest over specified time periods. With these agreements, the Company has the option to repurchase any unvested shares upon termination of the executive or consulting agreement.

An executive of the Company purchased 35,000 shares of restricted common stock during 2006 at $0.20 per share. As of the purchase date of the shares, 50% of the shares vested immediately, with the remaining to vest ratably over 32 months. As of September 30, 2014, all shares purchased were fully vested. This executive also purchased 29,000 shares of restricted common stock during 2007 at $0.20 per share. The shares vest ratably over 28 months. As of September 30, 2014, all shares purchased were fully vested. In 2008, this executive purchased 160,469 shares of restricted common stock that were granted in 2007 at $0.21 per share. As of the purchase date, approximately 96,300 shares vested immediately with the rest to vest upon completion of milestones established in Series C-1. As of September 30, 2015, none of these milestones had been achieved. In 2011, this executive purchased 343,829 shares of restricted common stock that were granted as stock options in 2010 at $0.24 per share, then modified and exercised early into restricted common stock. One-fourth of the shares will vest one year after vesting commencement and the remainder will vest at the rate of 1/48 at the end of each month thereafter. As of September 30, 2015 all shares were vested, at September 30, 2014 322,340 shares were vested.

Consultants of the Company purchased 75,000 shares of restricted common stock during 2007 at $0.21 per share. As of September 30, 2014, all shares purchased were fully vested. In 2008, a consultant purchased 10,000 shares of restricted common stock at $0.371 per share. As of September 30, 2014, all shares purchased were fully vested. In 2010, a consultant purchased 60,000 shares of restricted common stock at $0.29 per share. As of September 30, 2014, all shares purchased were fully vested.

Quality Assurance and Regulatory

Quality assurance and regulatory costs include direct costs associated with personnel performing quality control testing, including salary and benefit expenses. This function includes ongoing quality control testing, regulatory and compliance audits, verification and sterilization testing of products under development, and ongoing costs associated with clinical studies support. Quality assurance and regulatory costs totaled $1,050,196 and $1,033,582 for the periods ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively, and are shown as quality assurance and regulatory expenses in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations.

Medical Education

Medical education costs include direct costs associated with personnel performing training and coaching of physicians on the proper use of the Company's technology. These costs consist primarily of salaries and benefits, travel and physician consulting fees. Medical education costs totaled $2,033,677 and $1,689,097 for the periods ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively, and are shown as medical education expenses in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations.

Sales and Marketing

Sales and marketing costs include direct costs associated with personnel performing sales activities of the product and also marketing of the product and procedure through avenues like tradeshows. Sales and marketing also includes the costs that Shared Healthcare Metrics, LLC incurred. These costs totaled $337,420 and $248,148 for the periods ended September 30, 2015 and September 30, 2014 respectively. Sales and marketing costs totaled $3,947,050 and $3,485,977 for the periods ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively, and are shown as sales and marketing expenses in the accompanying statements of operations.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes using an asset and liability method, which requires the recognition of deferred tax assets or liabilities for the temporary differences between financial reporting and tax bases of the Company's assets and liabilities, and for tax carryforwards at enacted statutory tax rates in effect for the years in which the differences are expected to reverse. The effect on deferred taxes of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. In addition, valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amounts expected to be realized. The Company has recorded a full valuation allowance against its net deferred tax assets as it is more likely than not that the benefit of the deferred tax assets will not be recognized in future periods.

3 Stockholders' Equity and Convertible Preferred Stock

At September 30, 2015, the Company was authorized to issue 37,599,273 shares of capital stock ($0.00001 par value), of which 20,696,284 shall be designated Common Stock and 16,902,989 shall be designated Preferred Stock (2,755,372 shares of Series A Preferred Stock, 2,619,080 shares of Series B Preferred Stock, 2,282,981 shares of Series C Preferred Stock, 1,289,210 shares of Series C-1 Preferred Stock, 4,464,726 shares of Series D Preferred Stock and 3,491,620 shares of Series D-1 Preferred Stock).

On January 31, 2014, certain members of the Company's management team purchased a total of 10,871 shares of Series D Convertible Preferred Stock for $3.7232 per share for gross proceeds of $40,475 as approved by the Board of Directors on January 27, 2014.

The Preferred Stock was originally recorded at the net proceeds received by the Company at issuance. The difference between the net proceeds and the total redemption price is being accreted using the straight-line method (which approximates the amount that would be calculated under the effective interest method) over the period from issuance until the redemption date. As of September 30, 2015 cumulative accrued dividends were $19,701,876.

4 Commitments and Contingencies

Lease Agreements. The Company leases certain office, manufacturing and warehouse facilities and equipment under noncancelable operating leases that expire at various terms through 2019. During 2015, the company entered into a month to month lease for a furnished corporate apartment, the rent expense for the period ended September 30, 2015 is $20,487.

Purchase Agreements. The Company enters into standard purchase agreements with certain vendors in the ordinary course of business. Outstanding commitments at September 30, 2015 and 2014 were not significant.

Legal. The Company is not currently party to any material pending or threatened litigation. The Company may, from time to time, become a party to legal proceedings.

5 Debt

On November 10, 2014, the Company signed a Loan and Security Agreement with Hercules Technology Growth Capital, Inc for a $20,000,000 term loan. The first tranche of $10,000,000 was funded on the closing date. The loan has an interest only period for the first twenty-one months followed by equal installments of principal and interest. The last payment is a balloon payment on the maturity date of November 1, 2018. The rate of interest is the greater of 9.25% or 9.25% plus prime minus 5.5%. The loan is collateralized by any and all properties, rights and assets of the Company.

Upon meeting performance milestones, the Company can access two additional tranches of $5,000,000 each. The second tranche milestone is the achievement of not less than 85% of projected conservative revenues for the six months ended June 30, 2015. The second tranche is available from July 5, 2015 through August 15, 2015. The third tranche of $5,000,000 is available from April 5, 2016 through May 15, 2016 if the Company meets revenue milestones of not less than 85% of Conservative Revenue Projections for the twelve months ended March 31, 2016. First Amendment to Security and Loan Agreement, dated August 8, 2015 modified the second tranche to eliminate milestones and be available for October 5, 2015 through December 15, 2015. Additionally, the third tranche milestones were eliminated and the tranche is available from June 15, 2016 to August 15, 2016. Each of the tranches are available upon review and approval by Hercules.

In connection with this Agreement, the Company issued 201,440 shares of Series D-1 Preferred Stock warrants with an exercise price of $3.7232 per share which were recorded for $333,445 based on the fair value of the warrants at the grant date. The holders of the warrants have the option to exercise the warrants for Series D-1 Stock, which is mandatorily redeemable for common stock if certain conditions are met. Accordingly, the initial fair value of the warrants was recorded as an accrued warrant liability on the consolidated balance sheets with a debt discount recorded offsetting the warrant liability.

In connection with the Note and Warrant Financing completed on February 10, June 4, and August 16, 2010, the Company issued 107,435 warrants, which granted investors the right to purchase shares of the capital stock into which the Notes converted. The Notes were converted into Series D Preferred Shares at $3.7232 per share on October 20, 2010 and November 5, 2010, for $4,154,081, including accrued and unpaid interest. The warrants are exercisable immediately and expire on May 1, 2017. All warrants remain outstanding as of September 30, 2015.

The warrants are marked to market at the end of the reporting period using the Black-Scholes valuation model. At September 30, 2015 and 2014, all outstanding warrants were adjusted to the fair value of $465,262 and $182,488 respectively as determined by the Company, resulting in a gain of $46,447 and $19,519 for the periods ending September 2015 and 2014 respectively, which has been reflected in "Change in fair value of preferred stock warrants" on the consolidated statement of operations. If the Company borrows on the third tranche, an additional warrant of 67,147 shares of Series D-1 Preferred Stock warrants with an exercise price of $3.7232, or the most recent equity round pricing will be issued.

6 Line of Credit

On July 17, 2009, the Company signed a Loan and Security Agreement with a commercial bank for a revolving line of credit in the amount of $500,000. As of September 30, 2014 the Company has not drawn any amounts on this line of credit. The line matures on July 29, 2015 and allows for the Company to borrow up to 80% of eligible accounts receivable at an interest rate of prime plus 1.5%, with a minimum rate of 5.5%. The line is collateralized by any and all properties, rights and assets of the Company. In connection with this revolving line of credit, the Company issued 4,029 shares of Series C-1 Preferred Stock warrants with an exercise price of $3.7232 per share which were recorded for $13,166 based on the fair value of the warrants.

In connection with the Loan and Security Agreement, the Company is required to maintain all banking relationships and has provided a blanket lien on all assets including intellectual property. Additionally, the Company must meet monthly and quarterly covenants as set forth by the Bank. The Bank and the Company agreed to Amendments and Forbearance agreements whereby the bank has provided forbearance for covenants that have been defaulted and amendments to covenants. Previous agreements are as follows: First Amendment and Forbearance to the Loan and Security Agreement dated April 26, 2010, Second Amendment dated September 17, 2010, Third Amendment dated March 22, 2011, and Fourth Amendment dated July 25, 2011, and the Fifth Amendment and Default Waiver on May 22, 2012, and the Sixth Amendment and Default Waiver on February 26, 2013. In October 2014, the Company terminated the Loan and Security Agreement. At the time of the termination the Company had no outstanding draws against the line of credit.

7 Employee Benefit Plan

Effective January 5, 2006, the Company began a 401(k) profit sharing plan, which allows eligible employees to defer up to 100% of their compensation, up to the applicable limit. The Company, at its discretion, may make matching contributions. However, no matching contributions were made during the nine month periods ended September 30, 2015 or 2014.

In March 2011, the Company entered into a note payable for $34,429 with a financial institution in order to purchase a vehicle. The note payable requires monthly payments of principal and interest totaling $578 payable per month through February 2016. The interest rate for the note payable is fixed at 3.9% for a period of five years. On March 19, 2015 the Company sold the vehicle for $12,000 and paid off the remaining balance on the Note.

10 Stock-based Compensation

On May 25, 2005, the Company adopted the 2005 Stock Plan (the Plan), as amended during 2008, 2010, 2013, and 2015 to increase the number of authorized shares. The Plan provides for the granting of up to 3,917,104 stock options to employees, directors and consultants of the Company. On April 1, 2015 the Board of Directors approved the 6th Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation, which increased shares allowed for Common Stock. The Board of Directors recommended and Stockholders consented to an amendment and increase to the 2005 Stock Plan of 720,000 additional shares. The Board of Directors shall determine the exercise price, term and dates of the exercise of all options at their grant date. Absent a public market price for the Company's common stock, the Board of Directors, based on an independent valuation and other factors, will determine the estimated fair market value of the common stock. The Company issues new shares of common stock upon exercise of stock options. Under the Company's stock option plan, options become vested over four years and expire not more than 10 years after the date of grant.

The Company recognizes expense related to the fair value of the stock-based compensation awards, including employee stock options.

Compensation cost for stock-based employee compensation was $48,812 and $41,163 for the nine month periods ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

11 Fair Value Measurements

ASC 820, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures," establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value.

That hierarchy gives highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements).

The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under ASC 820 are described below:

Level 1 Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.

Level 2 Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability; and
- Inputs derived principally from/corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

Level 3 Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The fair value measurement level of an asset or liability within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Changes in economic conditions or valuation techniques may require the transfer of financial instruments from one fair value to another. In such instances, the transfer is reported at the beginning of the reporting period. For the nine months periods ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, there were no transfers in and out of Level 1, 2, or 3.

The following table sets presents the Company's investments, within the fair value hierarchy, as of September 30, 2015 and 2014. The Company's preferred stock warrants were measured based on unobservable inputs, and thus is considered a Level 3 financial instrument. The Company analyzes financial instruments with features of both liabilities and equity under ASC 480, Distinguishing Liabilities from Equity.

The following table sets presents the Company's investments, within the fair value hierarchy, as of September 30, 2015.

nContact Surgical, Inc. and Subsidiaries
Notes to consolidated financial statements

1 Organization and Continuing Operations

nContact Surgical, Inc. and Subsidiaries (the Company) is a Delaware corporation operating in Morrisville, North Carolina. The Company was incorporated on July 15, 2004, with a focus on providing cardiac tissue coagulation devices used during surgical procedures. The Company has sales of its product in the United States and Europe.

On March 5, 2014, the Company entered into a Membership Interest Purchase Agreement with Paul Funkhouser for the purchase of 100% of the membership interests of Shared Healthcare Metrics, LLC for a nominal amount. The Board of Directors approved this purchase agreement by written consent as it deemed it to be in the best interest of the Company.

Since inception, the Company has devoted substantially all of its efforts towards developing and marketing its technology. For the year ended December 31, 2014, the Company has consolidated negative cash flows from operations of $4,237,227 and a consolidated loss from operations of $5,247,033. As of December 31, 2014, the Company has a consolidated accumulated deficit of $66,064,127. Management's plans include increasing sales, continued development and marketing of its product and diligent management of expenses. In 2014, the Company entered into a Loan and Security agreement for $20,000,000 to provide additional capital for the company. In 2013, the Company raised additional funding from current and new investors in order to continue to execute its business plan until such time the Company can generate operating revenue in excess of operating expenditures. The financial statements presented herein do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability of assets and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary, Shared Healthcare Metrics, LLC. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

2 Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates include the allowance for doubtful accounts, deferred revenue, inventory allowances, deferred tax asset valuation allowances, valuation of stock warrant liabilities and stock-based compensation expense. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less from the balance sheet date to be cash equivalents.

Short-term Investments

The Company considers all investments with a maturity of more than three months but less than a year from the balance sheet date as short term investments. Short-term investments consist of government and corporate bonds.

Table of Contents

The investments are classified as trading securities, and are carried at cost plus unrealized gain or loss which approximates fair value. Unrealized holding gains and losses are included in earnings. For purpose of determining realized gains and losses, the cost of securities sold is based on specific identification.

Credit Risk

Financial instruments, which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk, consist principally of cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments and accounts receivables. Cash deposits are held in federally insured financial institutions in the United States of America. However, at times, deposits have exceeded the amount insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable, which subject the Company to credit risk, are stated at net realizable value. Sales are made to hospitals located throughout the United States and Europe. Accounts receivable are typically due within 30 days for domestic customers and due within 60-90 days for foreign customers. Amounts outstanding for longer than the payment terms are considered past due. At each balance sheet date, the Company assesses its need for an allowance for potential losses in the collection of its accounts receivable. Estimated losses are based on experience and management's opinion of the current status of existing receivables. For the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, the Company determined that no allowance was necessary.

Inventory

Inventory is comprised of parts used in the Company's coagulation devices or sold as an accessory to the devices. Inventory is valued at lower of cost or market and is accounted for on a first-in, first-out (FIFO) basis. The evaluation of inventory obsolescence involves an approach that incorporates both recent historical information and management estimates of trends. As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, the Company maintained reserves of $25,000 to reduce its inventory to net realizable value.

Deferred Financing Costs

Deferred financing costs and represent the direct costs of entering into the Company's Loan and Security Agreement in November 2014 detailed further in Note 9. These costs are amortized as interest expense using the effective interest method over the term of the loan and are presented on the balance sheet, net of accumulated amortization,

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment consists primarily of laboratory, production and computer equipment, which are recorded at cost and depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives, ranging from three to ten years.

Repairs and maintenance costs are expensed as incurred.

Revenue Recognition

The Company enters into sales arrangements that may provide for multiple deliverables to a customer. Sales of medical equipment primarily consists of disposable surgical ablation devices. Generators and other capital equipment (such as the Company's monitors, and laptops) are loaned at no cost to direct customers that use the Company's disposable products. Depreciation of such assets is included in cost of revenue. The Company identifies all goods and/or services that are to be delivered separately under a sales arrangement and allocates revenue to each deliverable based on relative fair values. Fair values are generally established based on the prices charged when sold separately by the Company. In general, revenues are separated between medical equipment, and the loaning of the required generators and laptops. The allocated revenue for each deliverable is then recognized ratably based on relative fair values of the components of the sale. Revenue from the sales of the disposal devices is recognized when a sale is made to a customer, in accordance with shipping terms, which is generally upon the shipment of goods. Shipping and handling costs are included within cost of sales in the statements of operations. Shipping costs billed to customers are included in revenues.

Additionally, the Company provides customers with a generator on loan and defers a portion of the revenue from the related generators based on the relative fair value of the equipment lease. The generator lease agreements typically are for a one year period, after which, the lease will auto-renew for an additional period of one year or until the Customer returns the generator. As the lease period of the generator is not a fixed term, the Company utilizes an assumption regarding the average number of auto renewals based on historical data. This assumption is then used to estimate the fair value of the loaned generator based on the estimated lease period. This deferred lease revenue is recognized ratably, on a straight-line basis, over the abovementioned estimated lease period.

Revenues and accounts receivable from individual customers that are equal to or greater than 10% of revenues or accounts receivable are as follows:

	2014		2013
	Percent Revenue	Percent Accounts Receivable	Percent Revenue	Percent Accounts Receivable
Customer A	*	*	*	11%
Customer B	*	*	*	11%
Customer C	*	*	*	11%
Customer D	*	*	*	11%
Customer E	*	11%	*	*

* Less than 10%

Sales Tax

Sales taxes and other taxes collected from customers and remitted to governmental authorities are presented on a net basis and, as such, are excluded from revenues.

Stock-based Compensation

Stock-based compensation cost is measured at the grant date based on the fair value of the award and is recognized as an expense over the requisite service period, which is the vesting period. Stock-based compensation costs for stock options are recognized on a straight-line basis.

The fair value of options granted is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes-Merton option pricing model based on the assumptions in the table below.

	2014	2013
Expected dividend yield	0.00%	0.00%
Weighted average expected stock price volatility	91.5%	97.3%
Range of expected stock price volatility	29% to 206%	54% to 118%
Weighted average risk-free interest rate	0.40%	0.20%
Range of risk-free interest rate	0.40%	0.20%
Expected life of options	2 years	2 years

The expected life of the options is based on evaluations of historical and expected future employee exercise behavior. The risk-free interest rate is based on the U.S. Treasury rates at the date of grant with maturity dates approximately equal to the expected life at the grant date. Volatility is based on the historical volatility of several public entities that are similar to the Company, as the Company does not have sufficient historical transactions of its own shares on which to base expected volatility.

The effect on deferred taxes of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. In addition, valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amounts expected to be realized.

Impairment of Long-lived Assets

The Company evaluates the recoverability of its property and equipment and other assets on an annual basis or more frequently if certain events occur that indicate impairment. The Company assesses long-lived assets for impairment by comparing net book value of such assets to the estimated future undiscounted cash flows attributable to such assets. Accordingly, when indicators of impairment are present, the Company evaluates the carrying value of these assets in relation to the operating performance of these assets and future undiscounted cash flows expected to result from the use of these assets. These federal and state net operating loss carryforwards begin to expire in 2025. The utilization of the net operating loss and tax credit carryforwards may be subject to limitation under the rules regarding a change in stock ownership as determined by the Internal Revenue Code, and state and foreign tax laws. Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, imposes annual limitations on the utilization of net operating loss (NOL) carryforwards, other tax carryforwards, and certain built-in losses upon an ownership change as defined under that section. In general terms, an ownership change may result from transactions that increase the aggregate ownership of certain stockholders in the Company's stock by more than 50 percentage points over a three year testing period (Section 382 Ownership Change). If the Company has undergone a Section 382 Ownership Change, an annual limitation would be imposed on certain of the Company's tax attributes, including NOL and capital loss carryforwards, and certain other losses, credits, deductions or tax basis. As of December 31, 2014 the Company has not completed a formal study to determine whether there are 382 limitations that apply.

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and various state jurisdictions. With few exceptions, including any state or local jurisdiction where a return may not have been filed, the Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state and local, or non-U.S. income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2009.

The Company previously adopted the standard regarding the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes which establishes the criterion that an individual tax position has to meet some or all of the benefits of that position to be recognized in the Company's financial statements. The difference between the tax benefit recognized in the financial statements for a position in accordance with this standard and the tax benefit claimed in the tax return is referred to as an unrecognized tax benefit. In connection with the adoption of this standard, the Company noted no such differences. During the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, the Company recognized no interest or penalties. As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, the Company has not drawn any amounts on this line of credit. The last payment is a balloon payment on the maturity date of November 1, 2018. The rate of interest is the greater of 9.25% or 9.25% plus prime minus 5.5%. The Company shall keep available, out of its authorized but unissued Common Stock, solely for the purpose of effecting the conversion of Preferred Stock, the full number of shares of Common Stock deliverable upon the conversion of all Preferred Stock from time-to-time outstanding.

In the case of any consolidation or merger, each share of Preferred Stock shall be convertible into the kind and amount of shares of stock that a holder of Common Stock of the Company deliverable upon conversion of Preferred Stock would have been entitled upon such consolidation or merger.

Mandatory Conversion

Each share of Preferred Stock shall automatically be converted into shares of Common Stock at the then applicable conversion rate upon the occurrence of a closing of an underwritten public offering pursuant to an

Voting

The holder of each share of Series D Combined Preferred Stock, Series C-1 Preferred Stock, Series C Preferred Stock, Series B Preferred Stock and Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to the number of votes equal to the number of shares of Common Stock into which such share of Series D Combined Preferred Stock, Series C-1 Preferred Stock, Series C Preferred Stock, Series B Preferred Stock and Series A Preferred Stock could then be converted and shall have voting rights and powers equal to the voting rights and powers of the Common Stock. Fractional votes resulting from this shall be reduced to the nearest whole number.

The holder of each share of Series D Combined Preferred Stock is offered additional protective provisions above other holders of Preferred Stock. 13 Fair Value Measurements

ASC 820, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures," establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value.

That hierarchy gives highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements).

The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under ASC 820 are described below:

Level 1 Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.

Level 2 Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability; and
- Inputs derived principally from/corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

Level 3 Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The fair value measurement level of an asset or liability within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Changes in economic conditions or valuation techniques may require the transfer of financial instruments from one fair value to another. In such instances, the transfer is reported at the beginning of the reporting period. For the fiscal years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, there were no transfers in and out of Level 1, 2, or 3.

The following table sets presents the Company's investments, within the fair value hierarchy, as of December 31, 2013. The Company's preferred stock warrants were measured based on unobservable inputs, and thus is considered a Level 3 financial instrument. The Company analyzes financial instruments with features of both liabilities and equity under ASC 480, Distinguishing Liabilities from Equity.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is presented to give effect to the acquisition of nContact Surgical, Inc. (“nContact”) by AtriCure, Inc. (“AtriCure”), or the Acquisition, as announced on October 4, 2015 and subsequently closed on October 13, 2015.

The unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information was prepared using (i) the audited consolidated financial statements of AtriCure for the year ended December 31, 2015 incorporated by reference elsewhere in this prospectus, (ii) the unaudited consolidated financial information of nContact prior to acquisition (the period January 1, 2015 through October 13, 2015), and (iii) the preliminary purchase price allocation of the nContact acquisition, a summary of which is included in Note 2 to this unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information, and (iv) the assumptions and adjustments described in the notes accompanying this unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information.

The nContact acquisition was accounted for using the “acquisition method” of accounting. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the purchase price is required to be allocated to the underlying tangible and intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their respective fair values. Any purchase price in excess of the fair value of the acquired tangible and intangible assets is required to be allocated to goodwill in our condensed consolidated balance sheet as of the end of the period in which the acquisition closed. We performed appraisals necessary to derive preliminary fair values of the tangible and intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed, the amounts of assets and liabilities arising from contingencies, and the amount of goodwill or bargain purchase gain to be recognized as of the acquisition date, and the related preliminary allocation of the purchase price. Such values arising from appraisals are preliminary estimates and subject to adjustment as the accounting for the acquisition is completed.

This unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information should be read in conjunction with the historical consolidated audited and unaudited financial statements of AtriCure and nContact and the related audited and unaudited notes thereto included elsewhere in this prospectus.

The aggregate consideration paid at closing to nContact’s former stockholders in the Merger was paid through the issuance of 3,757 shares of AtriCure common stock and cash of $7,581. Additional consideration, contingent upon the achievement of specified clinical and revenue targets, may be paid in cash and AtriCure common stock at various dates specified by the Merger Agreement, however, the Agreement limits the total number of shares of AtriCure common stock issued in connection with the acquisition to 5,660. Additional consideration includes up to $50,000 based on the achievement of certain clinical milestones prior to December 31, 2020, and 1.5 times nContact revenues in excess of specified revenue targets in calendar years 2016 through 2019. Although the cash paid at acquisition was subject to adjustment for net working capital balances outside of a specified range, no such adjustment was made as a result of the final net working capital delivered.

The total purchase price of the acquisition is as follows:

Fair value of shares issued at closing	$ 69,054

The Company recorded a full valuation allowance against the net deferred tax assets at acquisition.
